. . . turn, turn, turn, turn. To everything,

there is a season,
a time to every purpose
under heaven.

A time to be born;

a time to die.

A time to wound and a time to heal.

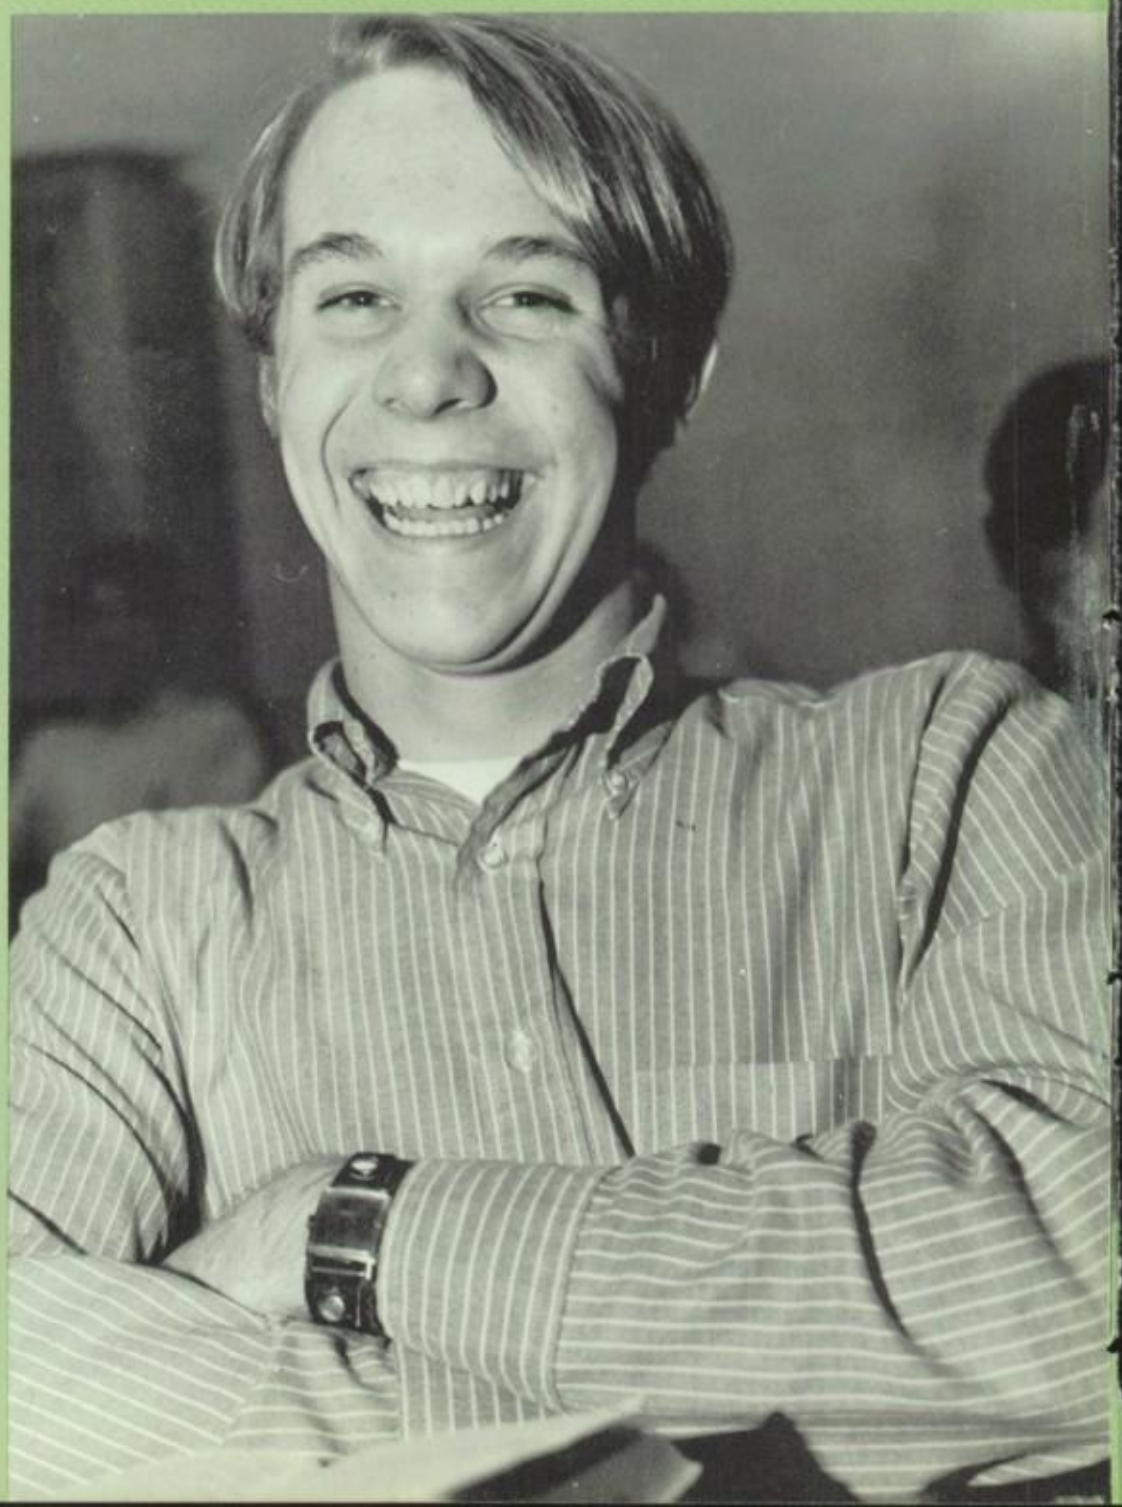
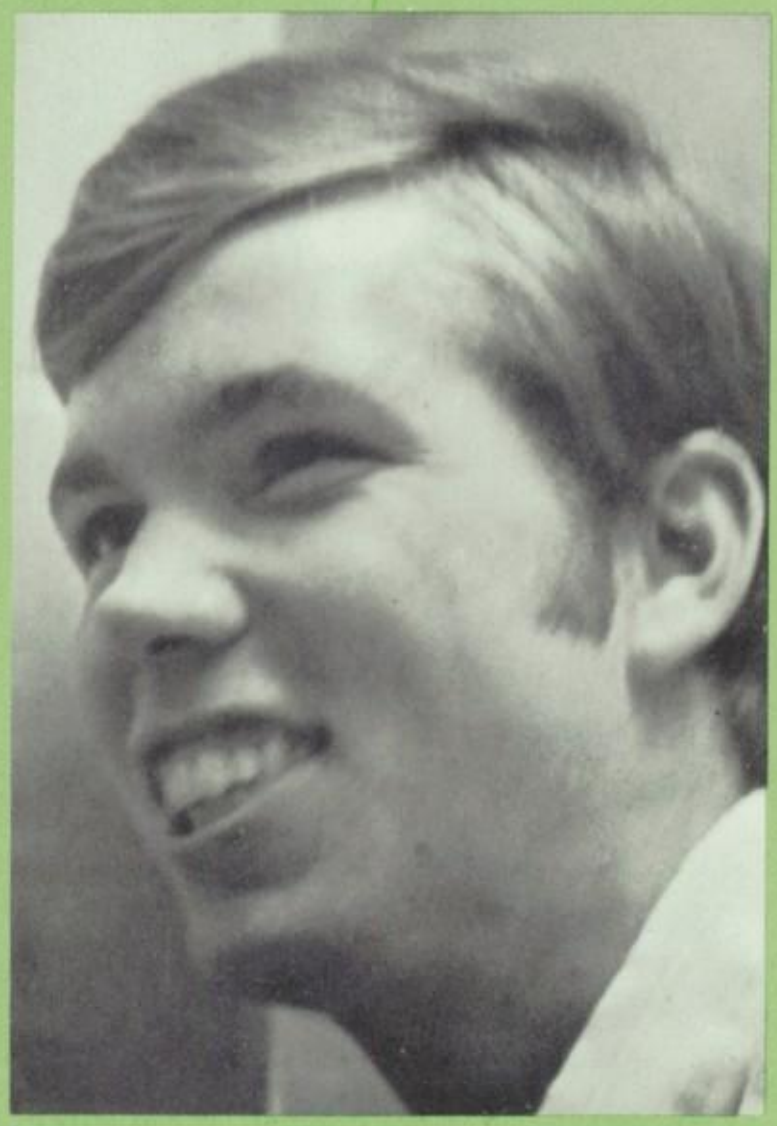
A time to build up; a time to break down.

To laugh;





to weep.

Let's have

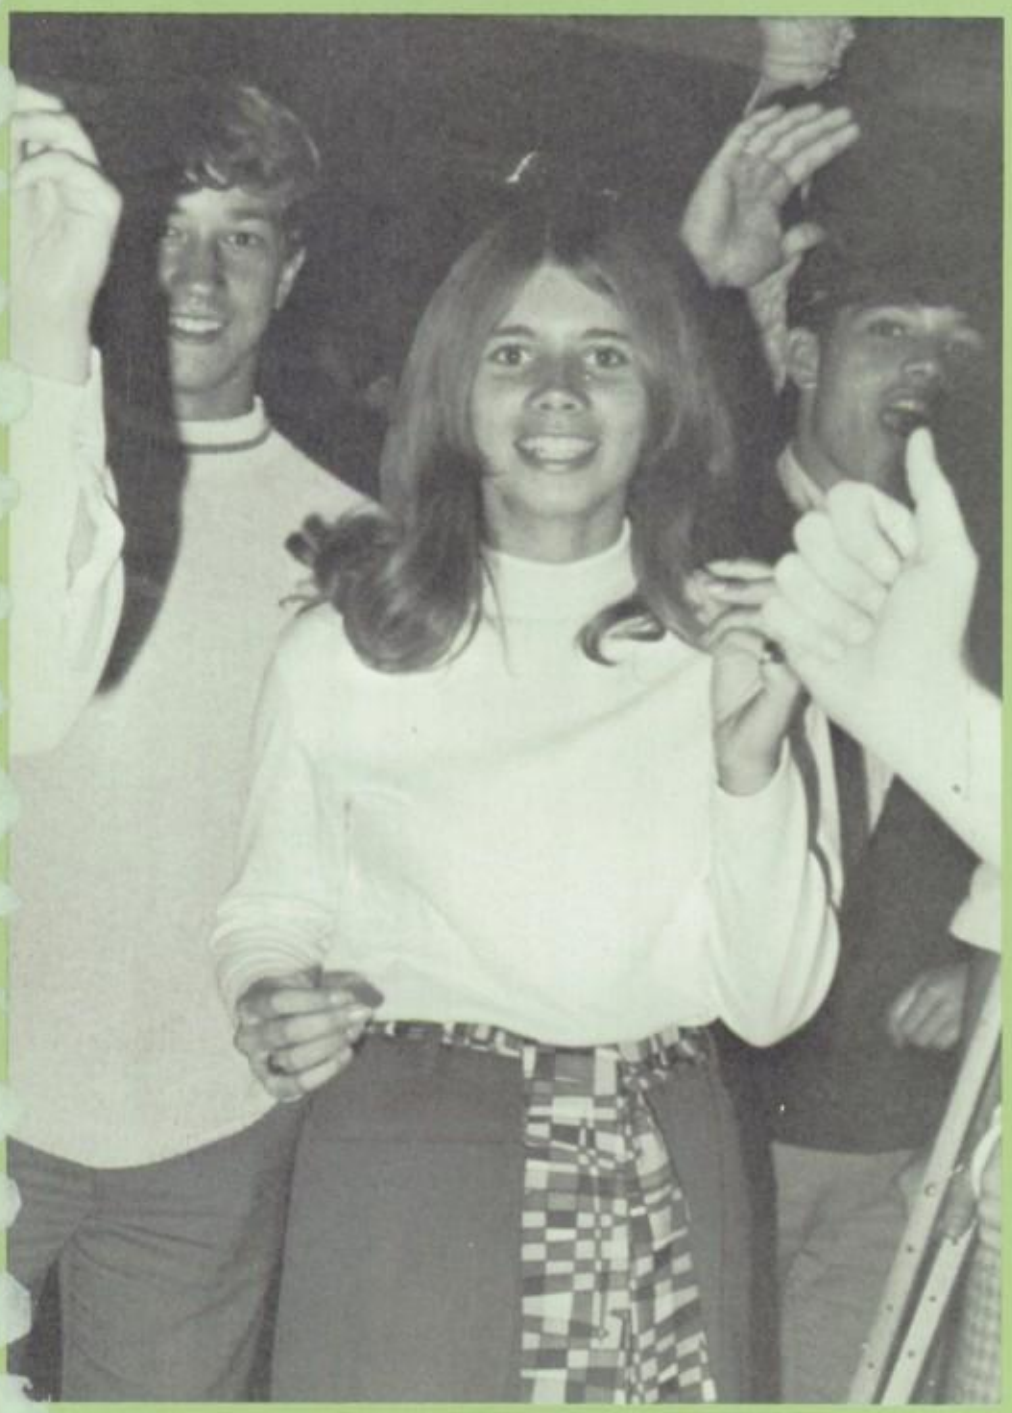
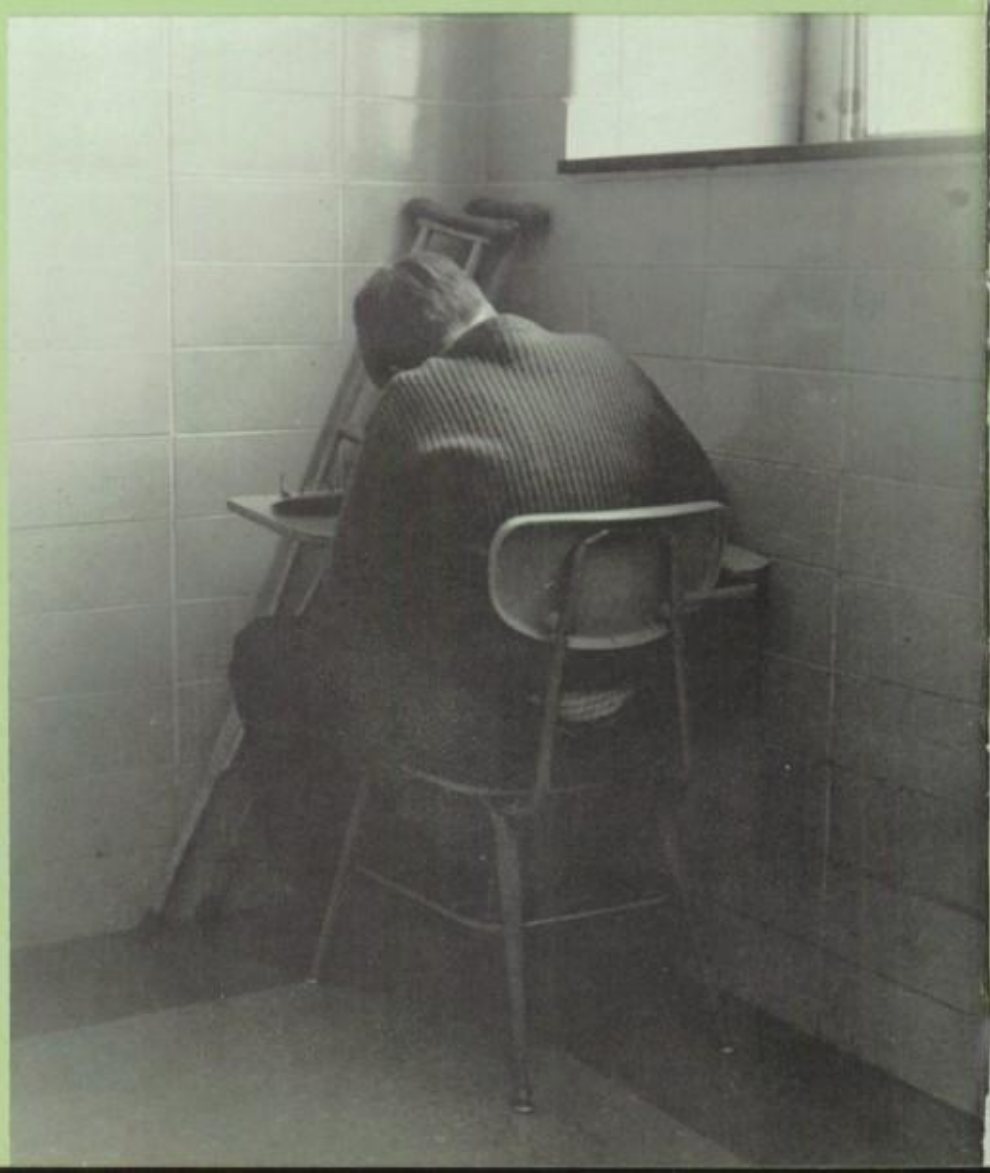
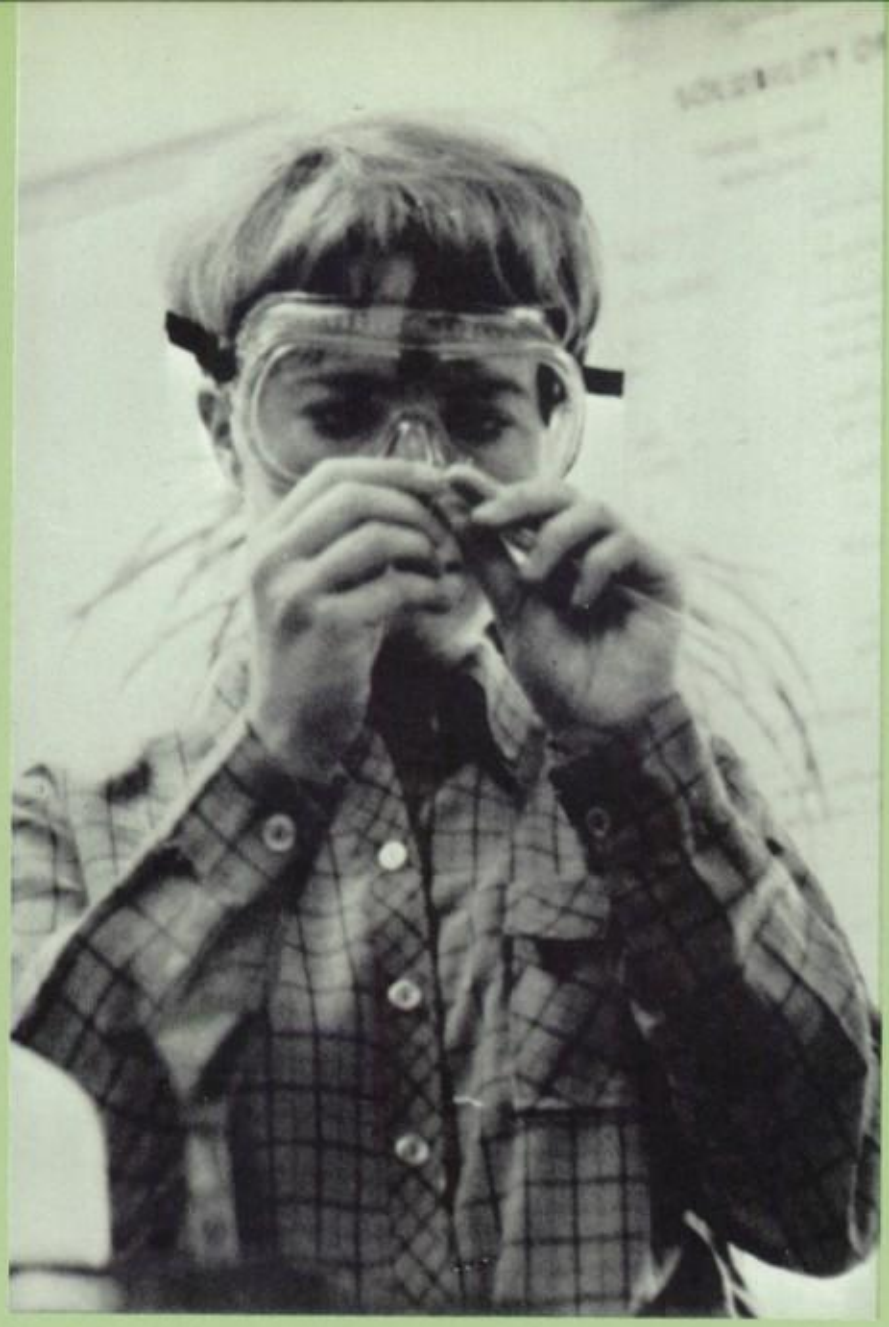
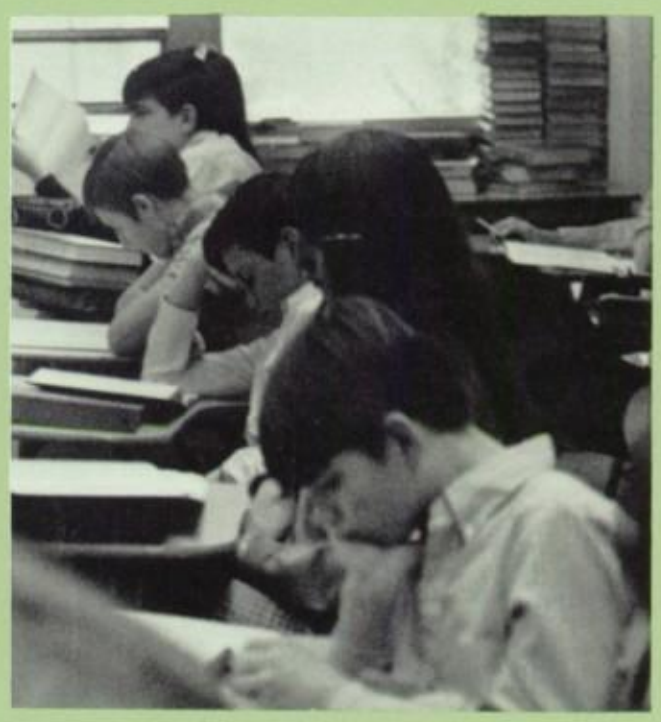
A time to celebrate;
to mourn.

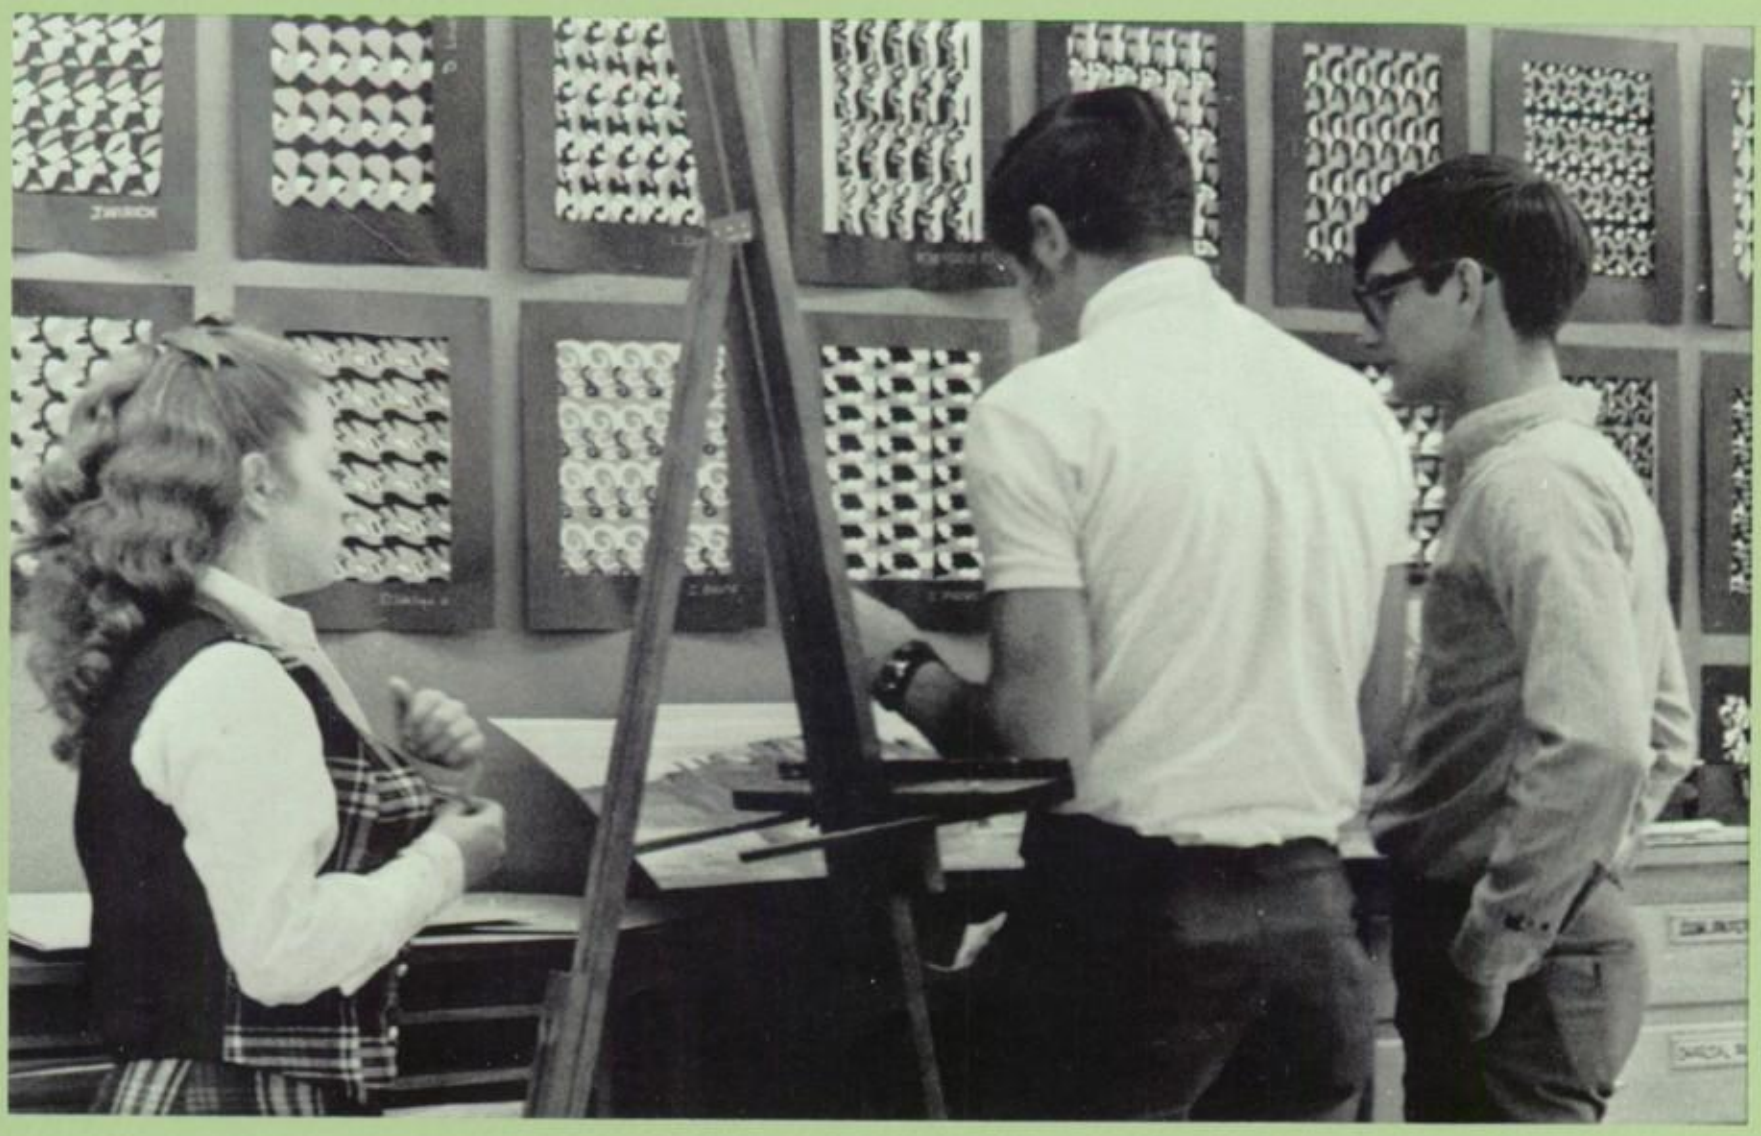




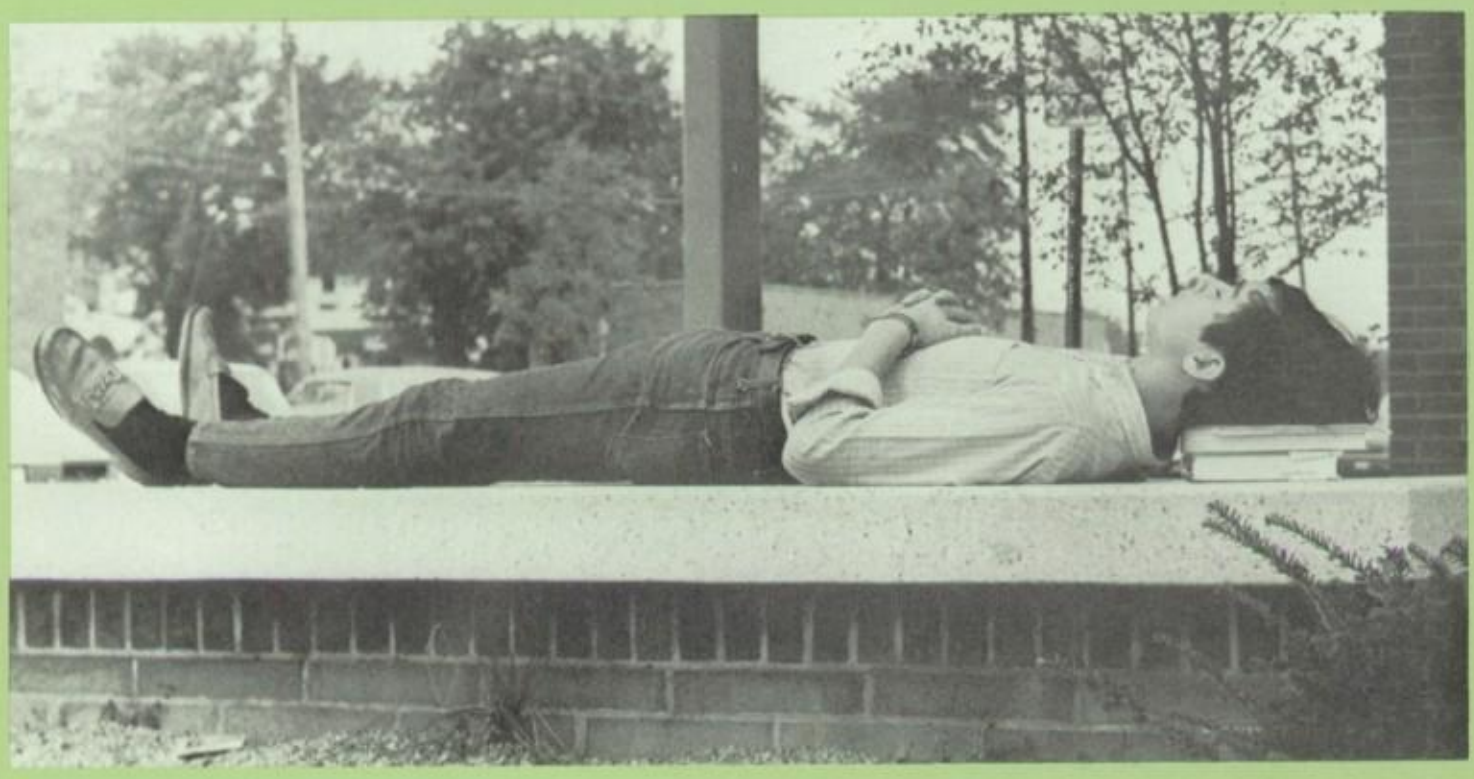


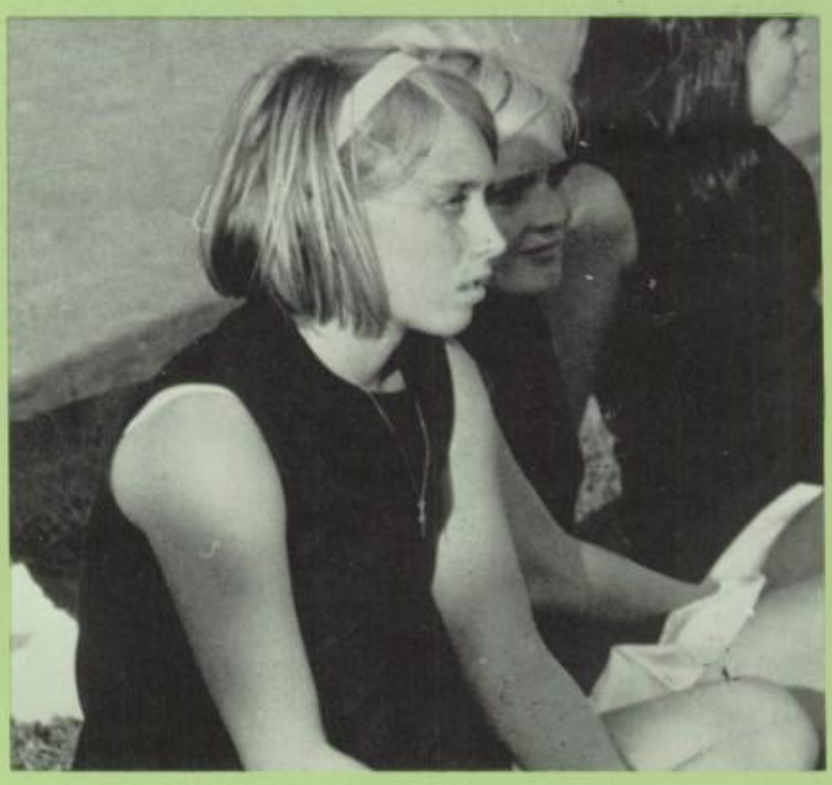
A time to learn.

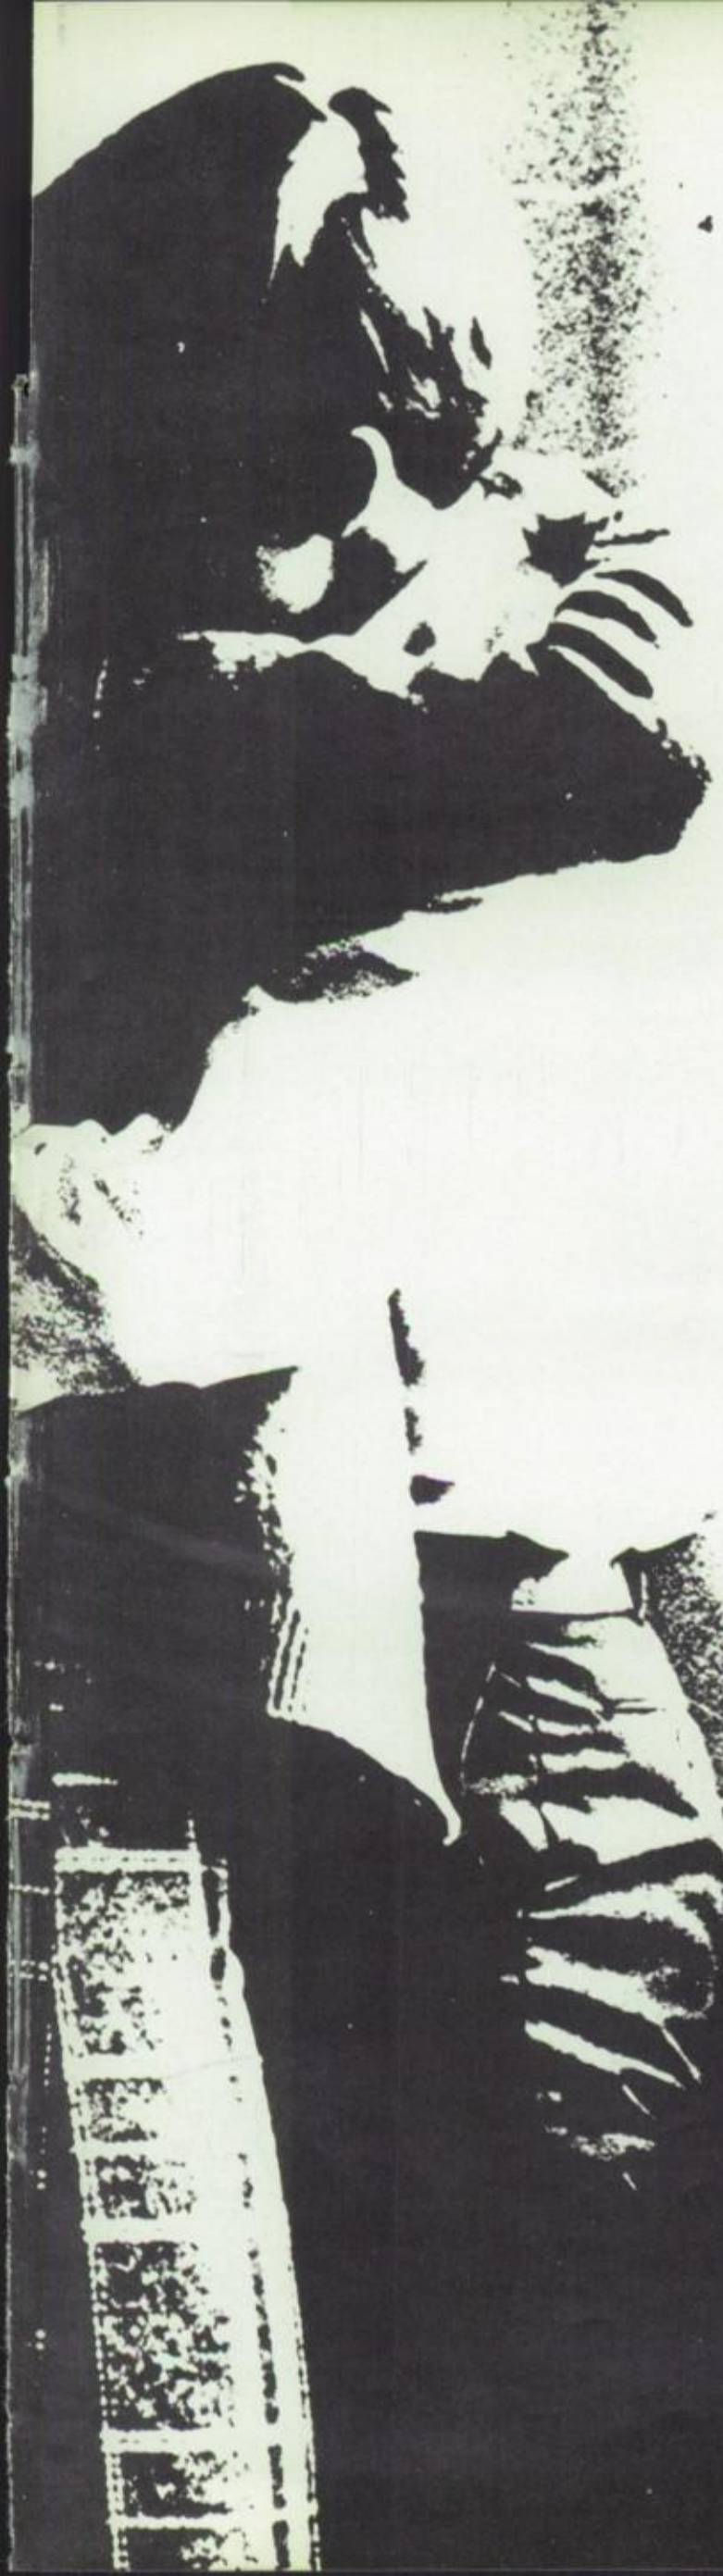




A time to keep silence;







to speak.

To love and to hate.

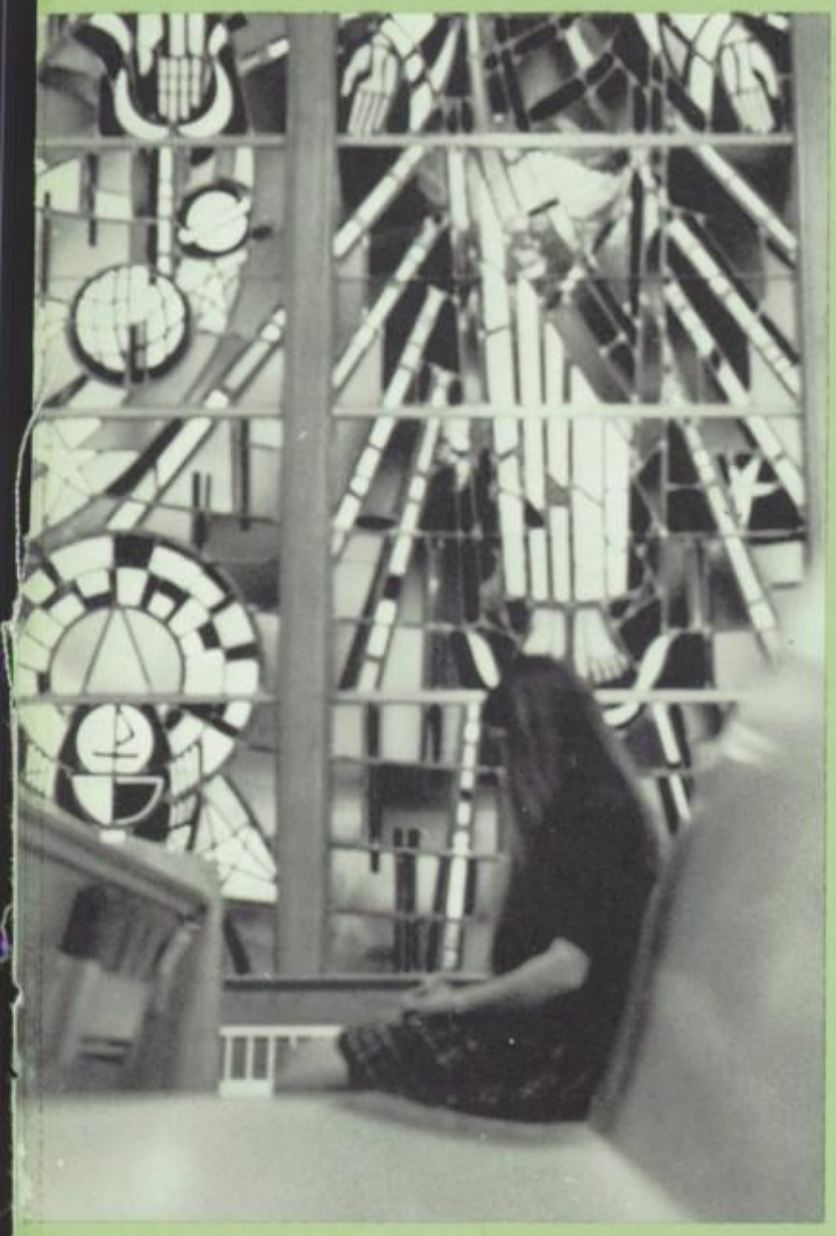
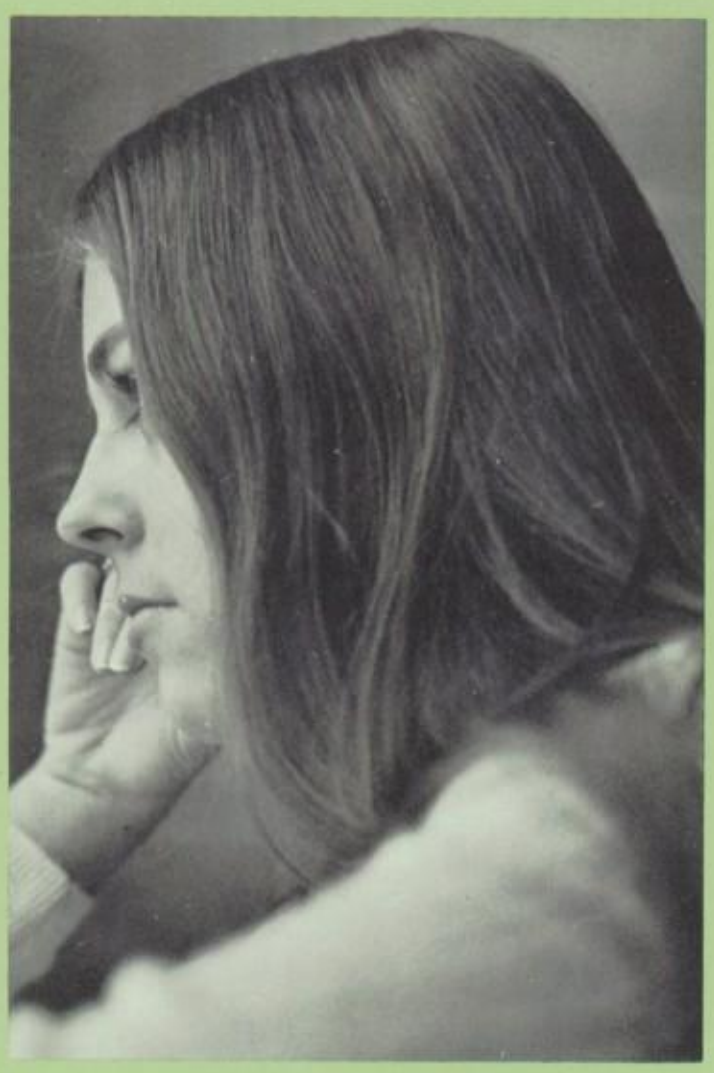
A time of war; a time of peace.





And a time to turn.
In four years,
to turn
and encounter every experience;
to acquire an awareness of knowledge; and develop a sense of reality.

To change existence into living.
By turning,
turning,
turning,

Perry,
To a very sweet boy who met at Frisaki's. One has to remember the good points of life as well as the bad. You're senior year will be filled with all good points, Sir
May God bless. Good luck

EVENTS

A Time to Plant

The beginning of school represents a new start. For the Freshmen as well as for the Seniors, it is a time to end and a time to begin. It is a jumping-off place, from Jr. High to High School; from High School to college or a career. It is time to plant: responsibility, maturity, leadership, all the components of adulthood. It is the initial activity in each year and as such it sets the tempo for every event to follow.

Chris invites Ann Deever (Diane Duty) to his home to ask her to marry him.

Ann confronts Kate with proof of Larry's death.

'70's Seniors Present a Drama: All My Sons

Kate (Denise Cox) consoles her son after his father's suicide.

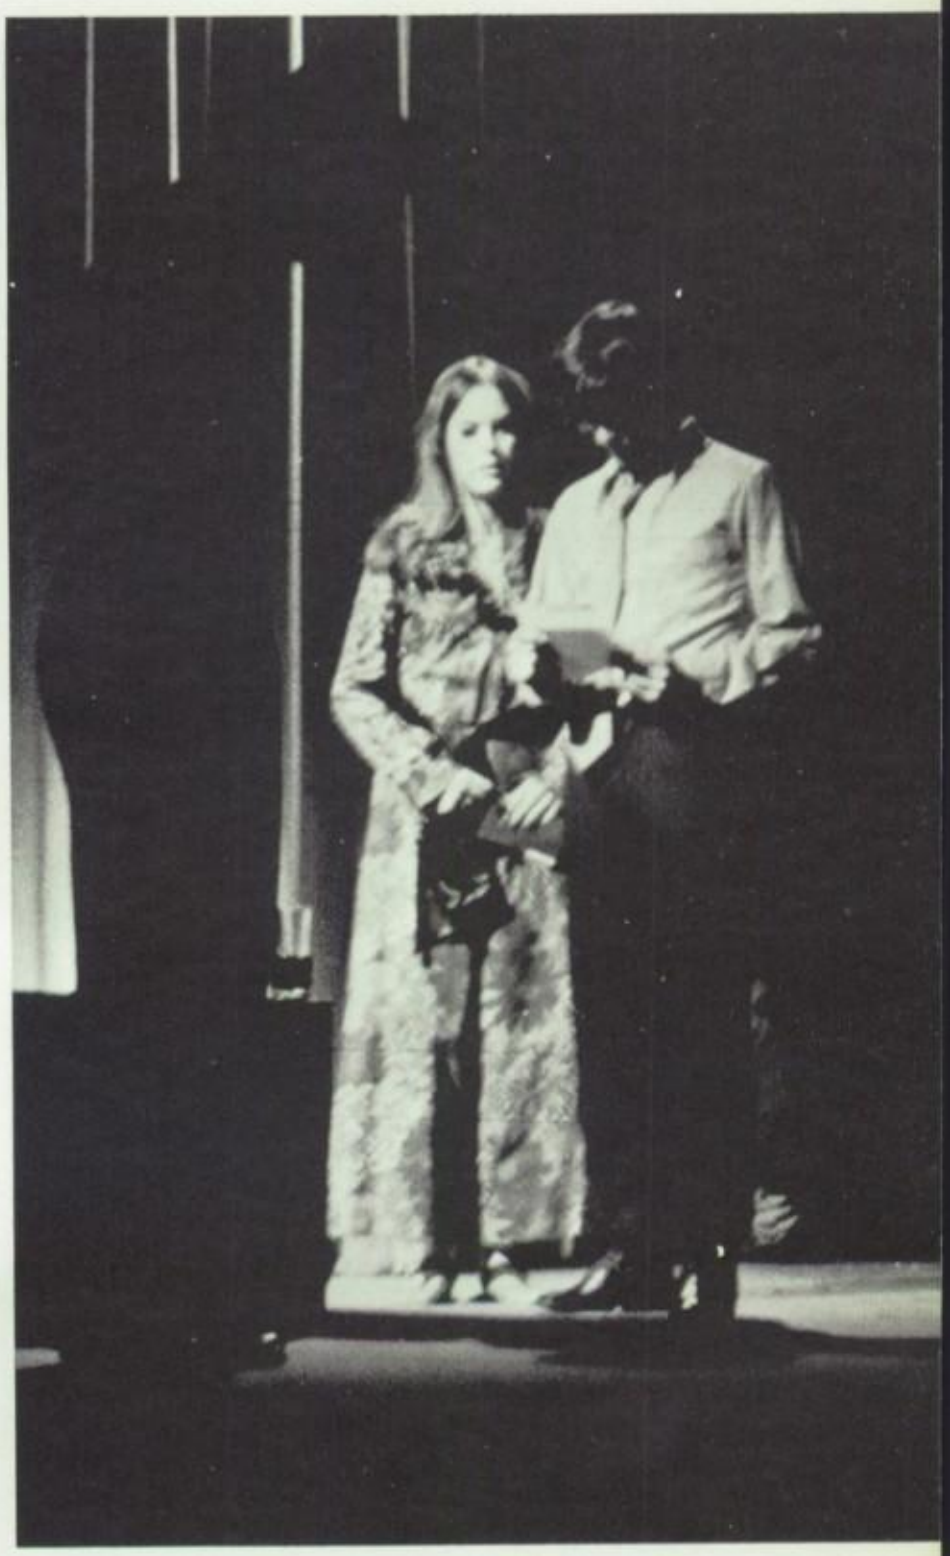
The Class of '70 pioneered again in the area of set design in their choice of a play by producing Arthur Miller's All My Sons. This drama, the first to be produced by Bowsher's Seniors since 1967, deals with man's responsibility to his fellow man and the hypocrisy of the motto, "War is good business."

The set for this year's play was done surrealistically or abstractly, employing suggestions of a house, a porch, and garden furniture. This served to emphasize the play itself rather than the set.

Preceding the play and during intermission, a Pit Band directed by Rick Mahoney played contemporary and pop music, ranging from "It Was a Very Good Year" to "Sounds of Silence." This was followed by Rich Roberts playing his guitar.

The play was co-advised by Mr. John Erkert and Miss Kathy Langa, Mrs. Walker's student teacher. The student director was Richard Sanders and the set was designed by Robert Gonsowski. Mike Zaborski was assisted by Mr. Burns in lighting the show.

Ann remembers the old days when she was to marry Chris' brother Larry.



Chris (Tom Widmer) reads his brother's suicide letter during the final climactic moments of the play.

Kate, convinced that Larry lives, tries to silence Joe (Mike Stanton).

Celebrating the football victory, many couples attended the Homecoming dance that evening, amidst the aura of "Autumn Haze".

Roses, Rebels, and Randi . . . Homecoming 1969

"Run Ewe Over," the name of the Senior Class float, was awarded first place in the float contest.

After her coronation, Queen Randi was honored by the band who played, "Can't Take My Eyes Off You."

Homecoming 1969 was truly a homecoming at Browsher High School. Many former Browsher Rebels came, on the crisp, sunny morning of October 17, to watch as the Rebels blanked the Roger's Rams 24-0 in Bowsher's new stadium. This spectacular victory was more than appropriate on this extra-special day.

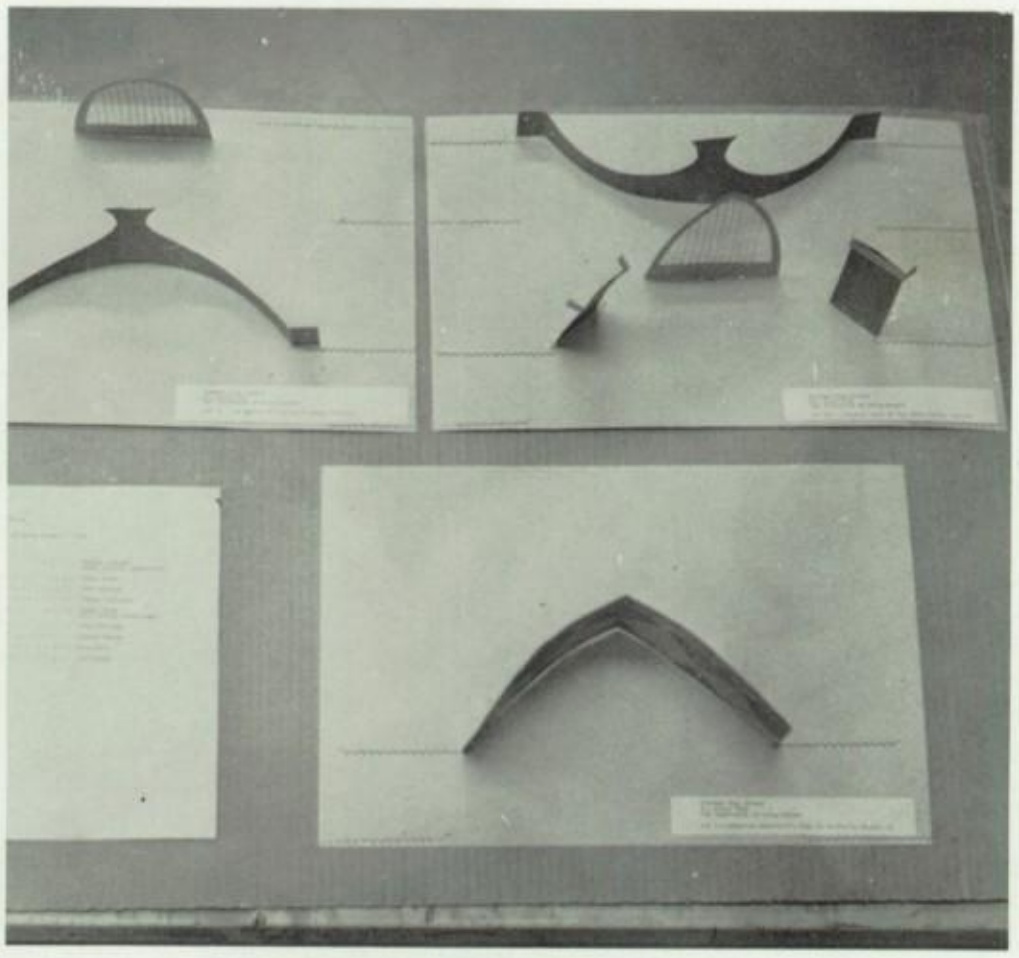
Choosing the 1969 Homecoming Queen was not quite as easy as our football victory, as all of the candidates were so deserving of the crown. It was up to the Seniors to vote on the five finalists, and their choices were: Cheri French, sponsored by the Q.D.'s, Lynn Haffelder, chosen by the Kingsmen, Randi Roberts, the Choir's choice, Pam Severance, D.E.C.A.'s candidate, and Wendy Smith, sponsored by the Forum. During the half-time ceremonies, Randi Roberts was announced the 1969 Homecoming Queen, and was crowned by last year's queen, Ann Hersland. Each of the girls received a long-stemmed red rose, and Randi was also given a beautiful bouquet of a dozen red roses.

The creative Senior Class designed a winning homecoming float entitled, "Run Ewe Over." It was built with a large road runner, featuring movable legs running over a ram. Roger's student council voted for the winner in the traditional float contest.

That evening, Queen Randi reigned over the 1969 Homecoming Dance, "Autumn Haze." The Forum sponsored the activities held in the cafeteria, with music provided by Neal DeBeau and his Orchestra.

Randi Roberts, escorted by the Choir's president, Rich Roberts, was crowned the 1969 Homecoming Queen by Ann Hersland, the 1968 Homecoming Queen.

John Pershing "Ernestly" courts Connie Leininger.



Mr. James Burns designed this mock-up set for the Junior Class Play.

CAST: Row 1: K. Iwinski, M. Heyman. Row 2: K. Kujawa, D. Baker, C. Leininger, S. Howland, J. Erskine. Row 3: D. Birr, K. Thrun, G. Teague, J. Pershing.

Before rehearsing on stage, the cast, Mr. Burns, the director, and general chairman spent hours reading through the play.

Junior Class Earnestly Presents English Comedy

Oscar Wilde's comedy, The Importance of Being Earnest, opened on Bowsher's stage March 14, 1970. The fourth Junior Class play at Bowsher was directed by Margie Heyman, advised by Mr. James Burns, and Kathy Iwinski was the general chairman. The play is about two young men, Jack and Algernon, who each use the name Ernest because the girls they love both hate their names. This naturally leads to some confusion, and eventually to the discovery of a long-lost son. In the process, Jack and Algernon learn that it is not only important to be Ernest, but it is also important to be earnest.

The set was designed by Mr. James Burns, the stage manager was Bill Bristow, and Russ Miley was the technical director.

THE COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN: Row 1: K. Iwinski, general chairman. Row 2: D. Wulff, make-up; L. Harvey, S. Walker, publicity; J. Doriot, D. Black, tickets; J. Bailey, costumes. Row 3: P. Zook, set; C. Bryant, props; C. Gerding, make-up.

Pine, Prisms, and a Ho-ho-ho

The Christmas spirit fills the air and surrounds these couples with a spirit of their own.

Shelley Howland and Beth Duffey tell Santa, John Frank, of their Christmas wishes.

Each couple votes on the candidates of their choice as they enter the dance.

Queen Jan Buskieker and her escort, Bill Prentiss.

In the midst of pine boughs and prisms, the Senior Class and Student Council jointly presented the 1969 Christmas Dance. Music was provided by the Cannaberry Trio. This year's decorations stand out as possibly the most distinctive of any dance so far. The cafeteria was completely transformed by the talented decorating committee which changed the everyday snack bar into a large fireplace. The wall of windows to the west were strung with ropes of pine, with a large red bow in the center of each window. The tables were all decorated by a cluster of pine boughs lit by a candle held in a large stained glass brandy snifter.

The senior candidates for Snow Queen were Jan Busdieker, Jackie Darah, Sheila Gladieux, and Kathy Siemens. Jan Busdieker was crowned the 1969 Snow Queen, with Jackie Darah as the Princess. Accompanying them in their reign were the attendants: Connie Leininger from the Junior Class, Mary Ann Loucks representing the Sophomore Class, and Allyson Leech from the Freshman Class.

As visions of sugar plums danced with those who were present, Santa Claus appeared with his familiar ho-ho-ho and bowl full of jelly, wishing everyone a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The talent acts were a major part of Rebelees 1969.

A time of war . . .

a time of peace . . .

a time to embrace.

Lady Grossinger (Patty Mignin) pleads with one of her friends to entertain her guests.

The Rebelettes start off the 1969 production in their traditional chorus line.

A Time to Laugh . . . Rebelees 1969.

Rebelees 1969 was indeed a time to laugh for many people who attended this student production at Bowsher. "Catch Her in a Lie," the 1969 show, revolved around two young couples and the scheming Lady Grossinger who tried to come between them. This light-hearted comedy ended happily, however, as the two couples were reunited and Lady Grossinger turned to other schemes.

Interwoven into the 1969 show were the talent acts, including vocal, instrumental, and dance acts. One of the outstanding displays of musical talent was the song "People" performed a cappella by Denise and Cecilia Adams. Those responsible for the unity of this production were the advisor, Miss Papps, the student director, Bruce Pasch, and the general manager, Marci Zink. The technical side of the show, lighting and sound effects, was handled by Mr. Burns and the student technical director, Paul Stein.

Masterminds of Rebelees 1970 . . . Steering Committee.

PIT BAND: Alan Thrun; Scenery: Kris Zimmerman, Steve DeShetler; Technical: Rich Roberts.

Although they are seldom seen, the guiding forces behind Rebelees have always been its Steering Committee. They are responsible for everything from the script to the sound effects. They organize the tickets, ushers, make-up, and costumes. This year the Steering Committee was led by Sally Morrison, general chairman. Miss Papps, as faculty advisor, gave Sally and student director, Tom Widmer, tips on publicity, scenery, and acting. Mr. Burns directed the lighting, sound effects, and stage crew for the 1970 production.

TECHNICAL ADVISOR: Mr. Burns; FACULTY ADVISOR: Miss Papps.

COSTUMES: Martha Ronfeldt; CHOREOGRAPHY: Chris Nowak, asst. Cindy Sterman; MAKE-UP: Sheila Gladieux; CHORUS: Janice Busdieker.

TICKETS: Bev Pasch, Karen Johnson; PROGRAM: Carol Abodeely; PARTY: Jane Allen, Kathy Weaver; USHERS: Bill Yosses; PUBLICITY: Jeff Heer (unphotographed).

THE 1969 PROM QUEEN: BARB WEAVER

A Time to Dance . . . Prom 1969.

The queen and her court danced with their escorts following Barb's coronation.

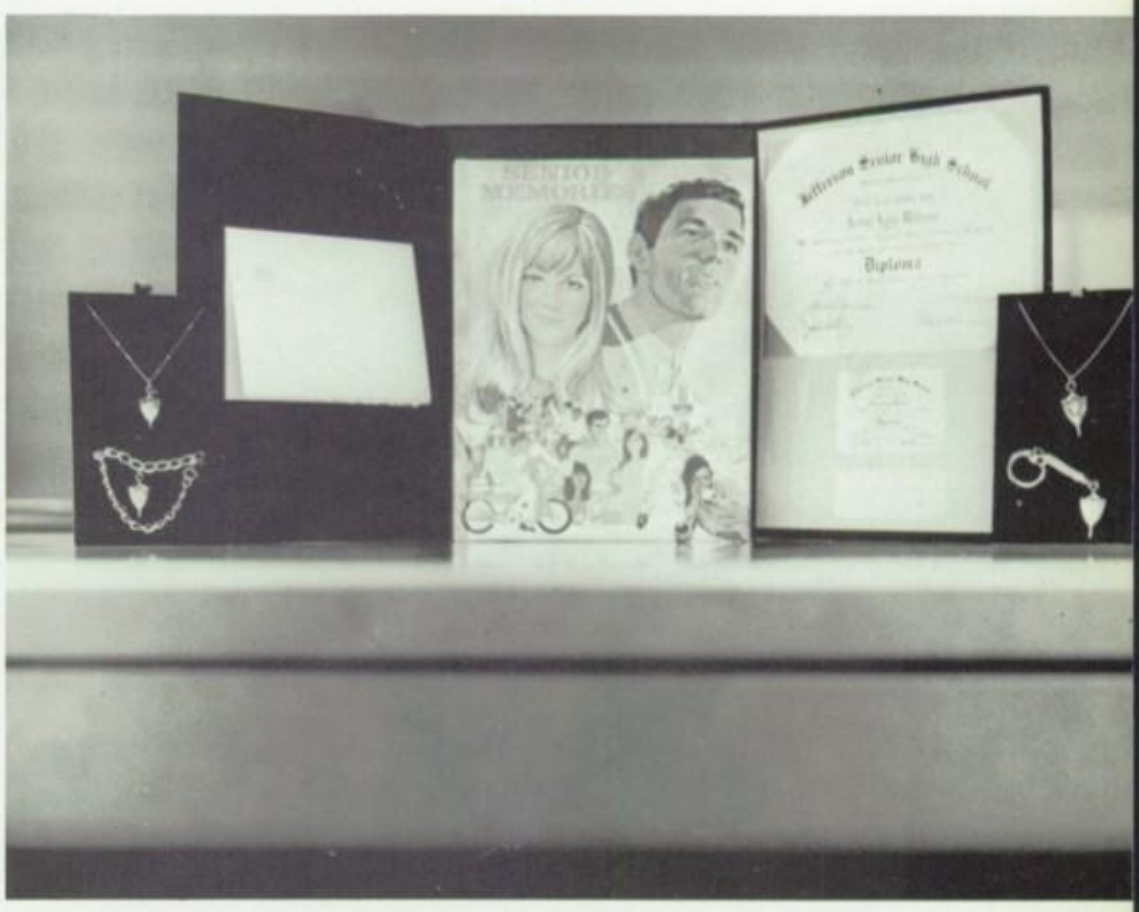
The legend of the Arabian nights came to Bowsher last spring for the 1969 Prom. "Scheherezade," the name of the Arabian princess who stayed alive by telling stories to the sultan for 101 nights, was the theme of the Junior-Senior formal held in the Naval Armory. Barb Weaver was crowned Prom Queen amidst palm trees and the music of Jack Runyan and his Orchestra. This year, with "Scheherezade" behind them, the Seniors will plan another Prom, distinctive to the Class of '70.

A Time to Reap . . . Graduation 1970

Mr. Jennings, the Senior Class advisor, measures Rick Ludwig for his commencement gown.

Senior Debbie Veitch is measured for her cap for graduation.

Graduation is a sad time for many seniors, a happy time for others, and a nostalgic time for all. It is a time to reap the harvest which was planted at the beginning of school, the beginning of life, which has been cultivated throughout the years. This year's seniors will branch out on June 5, 1970, graduation day. They will leave Bowsher, filled with memories of the happy times spent there: a championship football team, senior privileges which distinguished them from the underclassmen, Homecoming, All My Sons as the Senior Class play, a Christmas Dance called "Pine 'n' Prisms", the 1970 Rebelles production, the Prom, and Baccalaureate. Then commencement abruptly thrusts the graduates into the adult world, where friends part and greater responsibilities are assumed. Already, next year's also prepare to turn and reap what they have planted.



Announcements and Senior keys were a nostalgic part of graduation.

MRS. CAROL HARRIS, Junior Block

Bowsher High School students have a wonderful opportunity to learn about the business world before graduation. Typing and shorthand along with bookkeeping skills help to expose the students to daily secretarial tasks. Mrs. Bernice Gaiser heads Bowsher's Business Department. A special program offered by this department is the Business Block, a preparatory course for juniors and seniors who intend to secure secretarial careers. Shorthand and typing are yearly courses which are more involved. Not only are business courses offered as preparation for jobs but students planning to attend college often enroll in personal typing which aids them in their work.

"Some of the greatest poetry in the world can be found in the Bible." One of the purposes of Bowsher's World Literature and the Bible course is to make students aware of this fact. This course also exposes students to literature from almost every culture in the world. This course, however, is only one of the new English electives, instituted to make English more relevant.

Another Senior elective is the one-semester course, Composition and the Novel. This course is for seniors who wish to develop skill in writing the type of themes required in college compositions courses.

To further enhance these rapidly expanding courses, survey courses in American and English literature are offered. The remaining senior elective is Advanced Placement English for those looking for a challenge and who intend to take the National A.P. Test at the end of the year. A score of a three or better on this test may entitle a student to several credit hours of college English.

For the first time this year the Juniors were offered a course in Protest Literature. This course examines literature dealing with man as he attempts to change his environment.

The faculty of this comprehensive department is made up of twelve teachers headed by Miss Elizabeth Papps.

Talents and Skills Are Cultivated In Arts

After a more hectic year than ever, our Industrial Arts teachers, Mr. Burns, Mr. Campbell, and Mr. Fearnside, look forward to a rest this summer. One reason for this year's added activity was an early morning seven-thirty class in Woodshop I. Interest in shop courses always abounded in the past, but this year, instead of turning away interested students because of overcrowding, this new class was added to Bowsher's daily schedule. Along with all the regular activities of Industrial Arts, invaluable assistance went into the production of "Rebelees," and the Senior Class Play, "All My Sons" and the Junior Play, "The Importance of Being Ernest."

The year 1970 will symbolize a spirited activity in every phase of student life for years to come. No part of the school was left unaffected by this spirit. Various clubs sponsored by the Language Department had an extremely active year. Exchange students, trips to Europe, college scholarships all resulted from different programs of the clubs. These programs helped students acquire an interest in a language by being exposed to all phases of it. The Language Department's Chairwoman, Miss Leitner, directs her department in the teaching of culture as well as the grammar of a language.

Also Mrs. Dorothy Hayes, member of this department received a beautiful reproduction of an original Romanesque urn signifying that she is Ohio 1969-70 outstanding classical studies teacher.

Mr. Gordon Meek, who has been a teacher of numerous history classes at Bowsher for eight years, headed the social studies department this year. Emphasis on class discussion, lectures, individual reports, and visual aides dominated this year's program. The highlight of this course was a precinct poll taken during the recent mayoral election.

Two new teachers have been added to this year's staff, Mr. Hermiller and Mr. Oberle. Along with these teachers are, Mrs. Walker, Mr. Jennings, Mr. Davis, and Mr. Koester.

One of the largest departments in Bowsher is the Science Department. It is headed by Mr. George Rohrer who left Woodward High School to come to Bowsher when it was first opened. For the most part the study of science falls into two categories: the physical sciences and earth sciences. The physical sciences are those such as Quantitative Physical Science, Preparatory Physical Science, Chemistry and Physics. The earth sciences offered at Bowsher are Biology and Physiology. These are taught by Mr. Earl Wolfe, Mr. George Rohrer, Mr. William Wirick, Mr. Richard Shea and Mr. Donald Harris. Mr. Harris is the instructor for those classes known as B.S.C.S. B.S.C.S. is a form of Biology, but it becomes more involved with the physical sciences than does Biology.

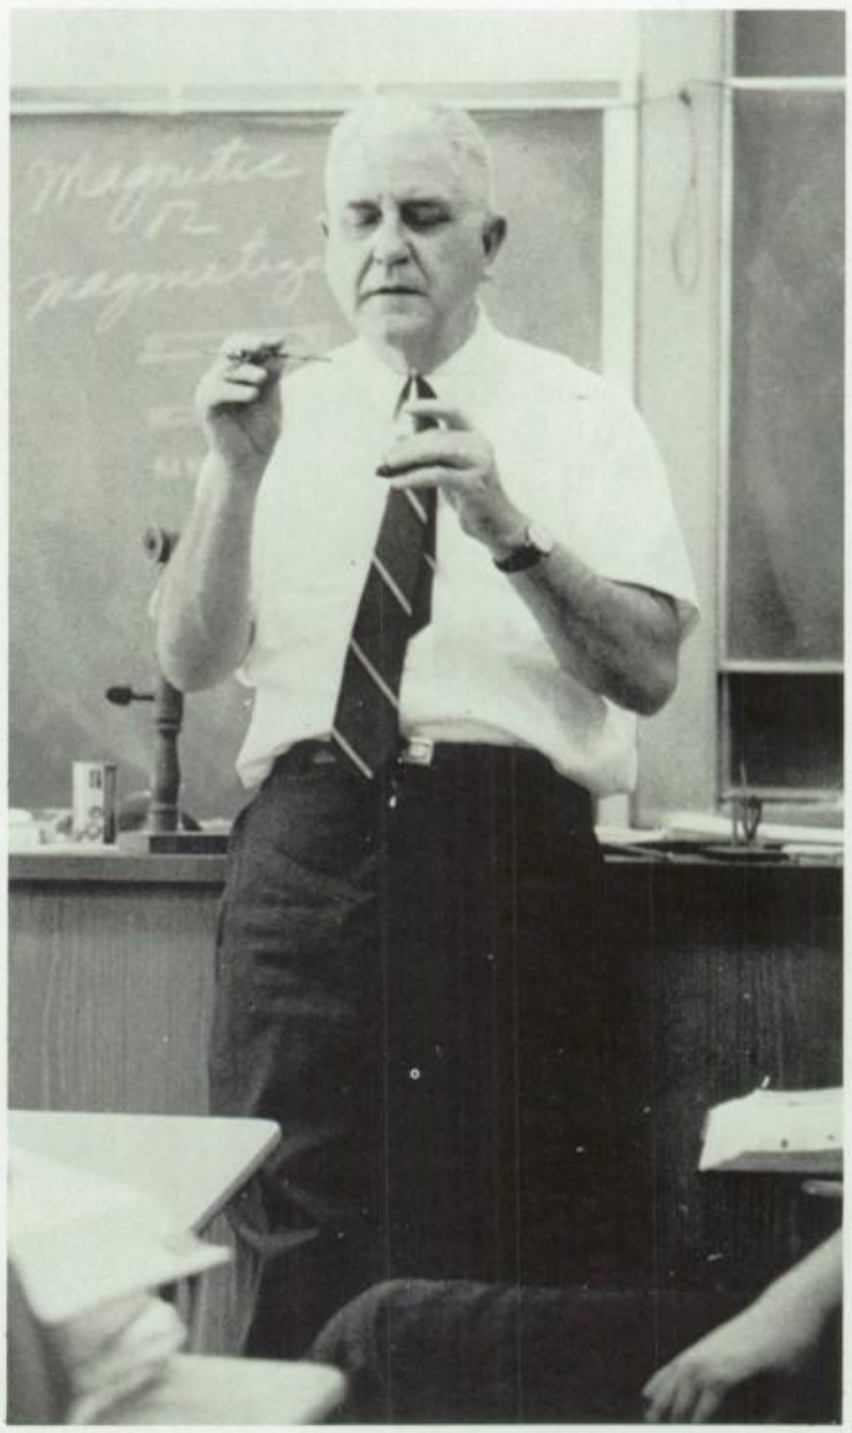
MISS REGINA WENZEL, Algebra I, II, and Senior Math.

MRS. JOAN FOX, Geometry nad Math I-A.



MR. GLENN BLINN, Algebra II, C.P.S., and Physics.

The established leadership of Mr. Glenn Blinn was apparent this year in the Math Department as he again held the office of department chairman. Branching out into new areas, this department for the second year instituted the computer math class. Interested students in the class were taught how to use the computer to do everything from a difficult homework assignment to composing music. There was also an addition of two new teachers to the Math Department this year. Miss Regina Wenzel, one of the new additions, carried a full teaching schedule this year. This included two Senior Math classes, two second year Algebra classes, and one first year Algebra class. The other newcomer to our school was Miss Liga Daiga whose daily schedule consists of three Basic and two Applied Math courses. Confident leadership and contemporary thinking as always has kept the Math Department one of Bowsher's finest.

MR. MICHAEL MILLER, Band;
MR. JAMES GRABILL, Orchestra

MRS. MARCELLA LILLEVIG, Girls' and Boys' Chorus; Sophomore Choir

A new singing addition to Bowsher's music department this year is the Madrigals. Composed of a select few from the Choir, this group performs in formal dress. They add a special highlight to many of the programs. Besides the Madrigals, the vocal part of the music department also consists of a Girl's Chorus, a Boy's Chorus, a Sophomore Choir, a Barbershop Club, and the Junior-Senior Choir.

To become a member of the Junior-Senior Choir, a student must audition with the director, Mrs. Marcella Lillevig. The Choir works daily at learning new pieces for the many programs given throughout the year. One of the main goals of the Choir is the District Contest. If a rating of "one" is received in District competition, the Choir will then proceed to the State Contest.

The instrumental section of the music department consists of a Pit Band, the Orchestra, the Band and the Pep Band. The latter performs at all the basketball games and for the annual production of "Rebelees." The Orchestra and the Band play at most main assemblies and work toward district contests. The Band is directed by Mr. Michael Miller, and the Orchestra is conducted by Mr. James Grabill. Each year, the two sections of the music department combine themselves to put on a Christmas program and a Spring Concert.

Classroom Learning and Job Experience Produce Future Workers

MR. THOMAS BOURDO, Distributive Education

MR. CHARLES DARNELL, O.W.E.

Another year of hard work went into our expanding vocational department. Vocational department teachers Mr. Bourdo, Mr. Darnell, and Mrs. Fackleman work together in order to further the educational possibilities of this department. The obvious purpose of these classes is simply to help young people to understand the business world and plan their future in it. The way in which students are instructed is important as well as interesting. In D.E.C.A. classes taught by Mr. Bourdo, students learn by doing many outside projects which require research within the business world.

In the O.W.E. class, Mr. Darnell gives his students first hand experience in working by providing them with jobs as well as classroom instruction. Lastly, Miss Fackleman's Home Economics classes complete the vocational department of Bowsher by training girls to work in the home and provide for a family.

Fitness Is the Key to Physical Education

MRS. JANE FISHER, Sophomore Girls; MR. GEORGE MACHOUKAS, Sophomore Boys; MRS. JANE JOHNSON, Freshman Girls; and MR. RONALD SCHLIEVERT, Freshman Boys.

Physical fitness plays an important role in the program at Bowsher. Excellent equipment, fine leadership, and intramurals make this program so successful. Required through the Sophomore year, physical education enables students to learn and demonstrate many new skills. Archery, soccer, volleyball, basketball, tumbling, and dancing are just a few skills learned by the classes. This year, Bowsher not only won the City Championship in football, but the girls' intramural soccer team also won the title. The title was won at the yearly Sports Day held at Waite High School.

Feeding and Cleaning for a Family of 2000

Preparing the dessert of the day encourages a pleasant atmosphere among the cooks.

Custodians bend their efforts toward maintaining Bowsher's heating system.

A nourishing diet for Bowsher students is the cook's main concern.

Custodians busy at their daily chores of running the school are guided by the Building Engineer, Mr. Edward Mullen. Firemen Harold Johnson and Floyd Modteska keep the school comfortably heated. Mrs. W. M. Constable and Mrs. Thelma Garvin maintain the appearance of the auditorium and other parts of the school. Custodial staff members keep Bowsher campus clean and orderly.

Twenty-two women provide hot meals for the majority of students. Mrs. Bierley coordinates the duties performed by each of the cafeteria workers. Marge Perz, a new baker at Bowsher this year, prepares, with the help of her assistants, a balanced lunch. A new program of furnishing lunches to the students of seven grade schools in the old Adams township has become successful under the leadership of Mrs. Beatrice Lenix.

Student Council Organizes Record-Breaking Magazine

Representatives of the Bowsher student body make up the Bowsher Student council. Led by President Jeff Forster, the student council plans and carries out activities involving all the students, such as Homecoming and the candy sale. They also listen to suggestions about topics like the dress code and help bring these to the attention of the administration.

Student Council accomplished much this year; they began by initiating the most successful magazine drive in Bowsher's history. The $16,472.48 earned helped defray the cost of the stadium.

In memory of Bill Wirick, former student council president who died in Viet Nam, the student council presented a bronze plaque engraved with his name. It lies at the base of the flagpole in the new stadium.

To complete the major activities of the year, student council sponsored the Christmas post office. Letters, cards, and packages were sent by students to friends. All the money collected went to charity.

President, Jeff Forster records an idea volunteered by a new student council member, Connie Williamson.

In an unusual moment of relaxation, Jeff Forster and Bill Yosses ease their tensions by clowning at the zoo.

Activities Were Promoted to Organize Mutual Ideas

Discussing Quad-Lit plans are Debbie Trumbell, Beth Duffey, Linda Flack, and Chris Zimmerman, Interclub members.

Activities of various clubs are coordinated primarily by the Interclub Council. This club was designed to arouse interest and satisfy present members in every club as well as exchange ideas for the betterment of Bowsher. Each president gathered suggestions which were used as a service to the school and students. Although stress is not placed on service projects as a whole, there are still a few. During November, the Interclub Council circulated stickers to each student to post in cars, supporting school levies. The club's Christmas duties consisted of "decking the halls" with decorations and arranging them in different parts of the school, especially the main hall. Nearing the end of the year, this organization was responsible for creating the carnival. Money collected from the Carnival was placed in each treasury of the club participating.

Quiz Team Represents N.H.S. in Local Competition

Jim Drennen, National Honor Treasurer is concentrating on counting money correctly which he received from club members.

The National Honor Society provides recognition for those seniors who have maintained a high standard of scholarship exhibited worthy character and leadership and who have shown a desire to perform school service. The N.H.S. holds induction ceremonies twice during the year to admit new members into the organization. During the fall ceremony, thirty-one qualified seniors were inducted. Near the end of the school year, the juniors in the upper ten percent of their class who also met the other requirements for induction became members of the society. The preparation of Bowsher's Quiz Bowl Team, is a yearly National Honor project. Chosen this year were Neal Carothers, Denise Cox, Lisa Leedom, and Robert Vick. After many hours of practice under Mr. Blinn's supervision, the team appeared on the television program "High School Quiz" and defeated Ottawa Hills in an exciting game. As the year came to a close, many National Honor members gave their time and assistance to the baccalaureate and commencement programs.

Lettermen Help With the Old News Boys Paper Sale

Organized to encourage participation and excellence also brings together the varsity lettermen in order that they serve the school as a group. The Varsity "B" sponsored its annual basketball game against male faculty members of Bowsher. This year's social calendar also included a sock hop and a pep rally during basketball season. Members of Varsity "B" sold newspapers for the Old News Boys Association in December.

Most of the members of the Varsity "B" club had their time taken up working with their advisor, Coach Machoukas on Bowsher's new stadium and track field this year.

Doing their jobs well during the half-time intermission at Basketball games, are Ray O'Rouke and Fred Whaley.

QD's Accepted and Met the Forum Challenge

At a club meeting of the Quill and Dagger members headed by Mike Corbett discussed many subjects.

The Quill and Dagger Service Society consists of Senior, Junior, and Sophomore boys interested in serving the student body and teachers of Bowsher. In an attempt to raise money and promote spirit, the QD's sponsored a Tag Day for the Scott football game. The money gained was put in the treasury to finance later events.

Responding to the challenge of the Forum Service Club, the Senior QD members played the Forum in a basketball game. The underdog QD's were the victors by a large point spread.

Another project of the Forum was the construction of the #1 sign, which was hung on the school after the Shoe Bowl victory.

The QD-Forum basketball game was another activity planned by the Forum. Because of making decorations and sponsoring sock hops, and car washes the Forum had a busy year.

Kingsmen Sponsored Coaches Award at Winter Banquet

Club members raise questions of importance to the President Dan Swiergoz and his Cabinet during a meeting.

New members inducted into the Kingsmen in October at the People's Savings Bank club room, started the club's events. After having inducted the new members, the club then proceeded with other important activities. At the annual Football, Cross Country Banquet on December 4, they awarded a Coaches Award to one of the members of the football team, and one to a cross country runner. On March 3, in the auditorium, "The Sand Pebble" was presented to students and adults. A sock-hop was a co-sponsored event in March along with the GAA. Money received was deposited in their treasury. Ending the year's social events as well as service projects was their participation in the Bowsher's Carnival. They had a booth in which they had a fish bowl with numbers corresponding with a number on a stuffed animal. This was one of the most popular booths at the Carnival. Mr. James Burns, the Kingsmen advisor, helped in a very fulfilled and exciting year.

Phil Members Get Better Acquainted During Bike Hike

Cindy Baymiller helps spread seasonal spirit at Christmas time by decorating the halls with pine boughs.

Members of the Philalethean Service Society did much more this year besides service projects. They started with donating trash barrels with "Thank you Boosters" stenciled on the sides for the new stadium. They held a successful pep rally and car-wash to help provide scholarships for the senior members. A progressive dinner on bicycles welcomed new members to the club and better acquainted all the girls. Phils hosted the Quad-Lit Tea in the fall and let prospective girls and club members introduce themselves. A slumber party held at the South Toledo Y.M.C.A., proved to be a "night to remember". Mums sold for the Championship game on Thanksgiving Day were sponsored by the Phils. Mrs. Jean Chamberlain and the 1969-1970 officers coordinated a fun and profitable year for the Phils.

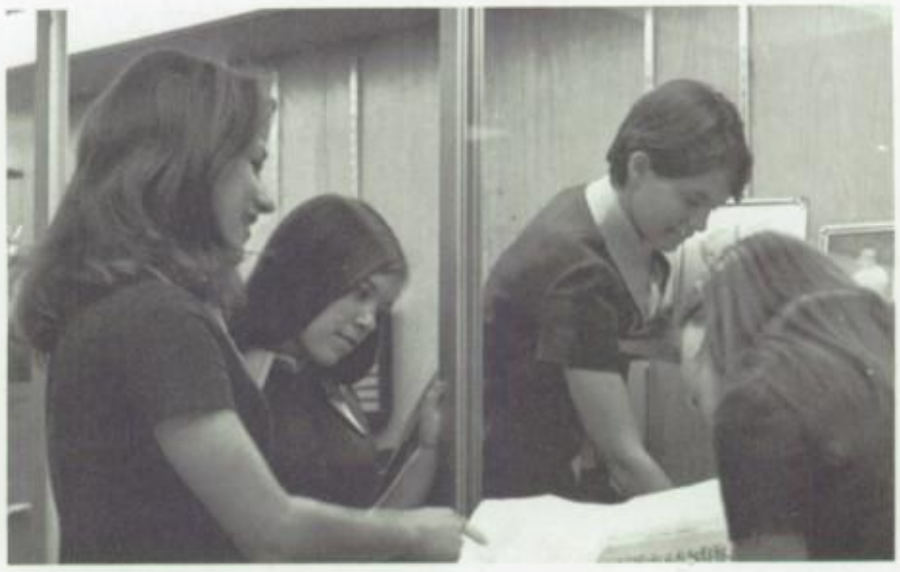
ZETS Display Christmas Spirit by Decorating Windows.

Among the many active clubs at Bowsher is the Zetalethan Service Society. Active described the Zets to the very end of school. Beginning the school year, this organization sponsored a car wash which increased their treasury. They also sponsored a pep rally for the Central football game and a successful bake sale. Each holiday was represented by a decoration like a pilgrim's hat for Thanksgiving or a pumpkin for Halloween on each door. These were constructed by enthusiastic girls wanting to promote the clubs activities. Annual events are decorating the cafeteria windows at Christmas, sponsoring the Football Baby Contest, and participating in the Quad Lit Roast. They were also responsible for a sock hop sponsored with the Phils which featured the "Backdoor." The Quad Lit Tea introduced interested girls to the club's activities. The new advisor, Mrs. Marcella Lillevig, held a Christmas party at her apartment to get acquainted with the girls in the club.



Assembling the football baby pictures are R. Nusbaum, L. Clark, T. Zidarin, and B. Duffey.

Quad-Lit Roast Decorations Prepared by Peries

Sorting through many of the clubs papers of the clubs activities trying to find the paper for the day's meeting is Linda Flack.

Officers and members coordinated a successful year for the Periclean Service Society. Among the first activities of the year was a car wash at a near-by gas station. The profits had gone in the treasury for some further use. December outside of school activities included a slumber party at the South "Y." School activities included a lively and spirited pep rally for the DeVilbiss football game featuring a poem by Henry Gibson and a skit.

Decorations on tables and fireplaces at Oak Openings for the Quad Lit Roast, were produced by these service girls. They also participated in the Quad Lit dance. A cherry pie sale in February was sponsored by the Peries in honor of Washington's Birthday. This years' presiding officer is Linda Flack and the club's advisor is Mrs. Janet Woodend.

Notia Thalia began the 1969-1970 school year with a rousing pep rally in the new stadium for Bowsher's first home football game of the season. Among the services these girls perform, the Thas work in the library helping other students to find needed materials. They also decorate the display cases in the library with interesting and varying themes. Their October bake sale and fall and spring car-washes helped to finance service projects and scholarships. The courtyard was decorated for Christmas in festive colors. During Christmas vacation they gathered together for a rousing toboggan party. They also donated food and clothing to The Beach House, a local charity. Mrs. Carolyn Goforth, as advisor, led an enthusiastic and eventful year.

Student-Prepared Banquet Features French Cuisine

Throughout the past year, Le Cercle Francais, the French Club, has endeavored to promote interest in the French language, literature, and customs. At each of the club's regular meetings during the year, members prepared informative reports of skits which broadened the students' knowledge of France and of the customs of the French people.

Early in the year, Bowsher students taking French were especially privileged to have the assistance of Claude Desbourde, a French teacher's aid, while learning the language. M. Desbourde also presented two programs about his native land to the club members.

This year's activities included bake sales, a tag day, a spring car wash, a Christmas party, and a banquet prepared entirely by the members of the club.

One of the most worthwhile services of Le Cercle Francais is the annual presentation of a scholarship to a senior in the club who plans to continue the study of French.

Rob Vick tells of the success of French Club's latest money-making project, a tag day for the Woodward basketball game.

Latin Club Events Finance Roman Holiday

Total involvement is the theme of Bowsher's chapter of the Junior Classical League, or Latin Club. The largest of the Language clubs, the J. C. L. is advised by Mrs. Hayes, voted this year as the state's outstanding classical studies teacher. The activities of this club are many and varied. Early in the year, the Latin Club helped with a three-day convention of Latin and Greek teachers and professors at the Commodore Perry. The J. C. L. set up book displays, and arranged a banquet for convention attendants. The State Convention in Columbus was an important activity this year. Robb Lasko ran for State J. C. L. president and Bowsher's Latin Club competed for Club of the Year Award.

Rome is the destination of forty Latin students with chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. VanTassel, Miss Papps and Mrs. Leech. The trip was planned for Easter vacation and places visited included Florence, Naples, the Vatican, and the ruins of Pompeii. Ending the year is the Latin Club banquet. A different theme is used in the decorations every year and the food, clothing, and entertainment is as authentically Roman as possible.

The Latin Club bake sale proves to be fun for these students as well as a money making project for the club.

Spanish Club Creates International Christmas Party

In addition to the tag days, car washes and bake sales participated in by every club, the Spanish Club is designed to widen its members understanding of the language they study as well as the country from which it comes. Part of this program was to decorate a showcase with examples of the Spanish culture. At Christmas, a traditional season of activity, this club organized a Christmas party following the customs of Spain.

Piñatas, stuffed with presents, plays a major role of the Christmas celebration of the Spanish Club.

Numerous Events Fill the German Club Calendar

Activities filled the calendar for the members of Bowsher's German Club. Officers and advisor Mrs. O'-Keefe and new advisor Mrs. Daiga planned German Club events, which this year were more numerous than ever before. The first major project was a picnic at Oak Openings Park. First-year German students were invited to interest them in the club. A few weeks later German Club hosted a hayride and invited Start's German Club to attend. Induction of new members was held in the Little Theater on November 12. A play, presented in German, was given for the new members and refreshments were served afterward. To celebrate the Christmas season, a caroling party was held December 23. Christmas songs were sung in both English and German. Another holiday was observed, Fasching, the German version of Mardi Gras. A party was held and members came in costume, to honor Fasching as the Germans do. Ending the year were honors to Seniors and also a $50 scholarship to Melinda Brown to continue her studies.

Laughing and conversing at the German club induction were Linda Ames, Mrs. Daiga, and Mrs. O'Keefe.

Students interested in the teaching profession comprise the Future Teachers of America. Besides learning more about teaching they also carry on normal club activities such as parties and money making projects. Starting off the year for F.T.A. were money making projects; they sold tags for the Elyria football game, held a bake sale and co-sponsored a sock hop after the Waite basketball game.

Members used part of this money toward a Christmas party, attended by F.T.A. members from Libbey, St. John's and McAuley. Speakers discussed subjects relating to the field of teaching with F.T.A. members throughout the year. Some of the topics included Head Start, a program for culturally deprived children, special education fields such as speech therapy and emotionally handicapped children, and psychology as it applies to teaching.

After a tea for F.T.A. members from district schools, topics in the teaching field and programs of today in practice.

Future Business Leaders of America is an organization which participates in school activities as well as competing in contests of different types in their districts. Contests are set up from the fundamentals of typing, bookkeeping, and shorthand. Among the girls involved in F.B.L.A., are the fortunate winners of the district contest. Representing Bowsher in the Northwest District Meeting of Ohio are: Debbie Patton, who placed second in Shorthand I, Cindy Fox who placed Fourth in Bookkeeping I and Laura Walker who placed Fifth in Shorthand III. A team of three girls, Jan Tillman, Laura Walker, and Valerie Hutton placed second in Spelling.

Amidst the competition, they also sponsored a bake sale early in the school year and also gave a Thanksgiving Basket to a needy family. The money from the bake sale had gone into the treasury.

Girls who joined during the campaign were officially welcomed into the club at the induction ceremony on October ninth. A major F.H.A. service project this year was the Homecoming mum sale which was conducted throughout the week preceding the Homecoming game. The activities which kept members busy all through the year included a candy apple sale, a bake sale, a swim party, the club's Christmas party, and the annual F.H.A. sponsored teacher's breakfast. Other important events were the Sub-regional and State Conventions at which the girls attended workshops to learn more about planning for a successful organization and the observance of National F.H.A. Week in the spring.

Induction of new members in October started a year with enthusiasm for Bowsher's Paramedical Careers Club. This club is for those students who are interested in medicine, nursing, and related careers. Their tag day and bake sale gave them the money to provide a scholarship which goes toward the tuition of one of the Seniors. They also gave a Christmas basket to a needy family, bought gifts for the children and furnished clothing for them. The advisor, Mrs. Lola Sheline, made the year educational as well as interesting by setting up tours through Toledo Hospital, Toledo Medical College of Ohio, and the Colonial Nursing Home.

Biology Club Combines Active Learning and Fun

By utilizing lab sessions and field trips, the Biology Club members explore the numerous complexities of the study of living organisms. Helping their advisor of the club, Mr. Earl Wolfe, they supplied the solariam with various plants. In addition to holding money raising bake-sales and car washes, the Biology Club coordinated different activities. They honored various guest speakers, including Mr. Dan Danford from the Toledo Zoological Gardens.

Continually one of the most energetic organizations at Bowsher, the Alchemist's Club once again provided its members with many enjoyable activities throughout the year. The first of these was a bake sale in late October which featured apple cider and doughnuts. A few days later, on the night before Halloween, the Alchemist initiated sock hop took place in the cafeteria. For all who attended there was cider, doughnuts and music of "Fred." The dance proved to be one of the most profitable ever held at Bowsher.

The next major event was the annual Alchemist Pizza Party in January. The highlight of the year however, came in May when there was a trip to Chicago which included a tour of the Museum of Science and Industry. On several occasions during the year, the Alchemists also hosted various guest speakers from the technical fields.

Interest in competitive sports is encouraged by Bowsher's chapter of the Girls' Athletic Association. One of the largest clubs at Bowsher, the GAA offers many activities to its members.

Most important on the schedule of GAA events are the intramurals. The girls participate in such sports as soccer, bowling, volleyball, badminton, softball, tennis, and golf. There is competition between the teams and friendly rivalries begin between them. Other activities in the GAA included two bake sales, one directed by Freshman and Sophomore members, the other by Juniors and Seniors. Pep Band Keeps Fans Clapping in Basketball Season

New melodies at a pulse-raising tempo kept fans drumming fingers and feet when the Pep Band filled the air at basketball games in our gym. Some of the finest musicians at Bowsher make up the Pep Band. This small but energetic group, composed of members from the marching band, had as its leader for the second year, Tom Siebert. The Pep Band also plays for mass meeting, which helped to rouse spirits of anticipation of a basketball game. Besides playing "Dixie" when the team enters the court, they also play songs such as "Mame," "Peter Gunn," "Pink Panther," and "Mission Impossible."

Pep Club Prompts School Spirit With Card Section

Blue sweaters are in evidence in the halls of Bowsher on game day. The wearers are members of the Pep Club, a group of girls interested in helping school spirit.

Basketball season is the busiest time for the Pep Club; they attend all home games and are usually the center of the cheering section. A new idea used this year was the card section, forming patterns with red and white cards as is done in some colleges.

Intently watching the Bowsher-Start game, the band members store up energy for a half-time show.

All in step, marching proudly the 1970 Bowsher Band played a large part in school activities. Led by Drum Major, Bill Taylor and the Bowsher majorettes, the band participated in various different projects. One of these projects consisted of the half-time show at Rebel football games. One of the shows presented was "Up, Up and Away," complete with balloons. The half-time program at the Shoe Bowl included "Aquarius" and "Goldfinger."

In addition to half-time performances the Rebel Band participated in community events. They played at the opening ceremony of the new Masonic Temple. Two musical concerts, one in winter and one in spring completed the year's activities for most band members. Some of the band members were still busy preparing for the annual production of Rebelees'. These are the members of the Pit Band, who provide most of the music for the show.

Strings, brass, winds, and percussion make up the 1970 Bowsher Orchestra. A mixture of modern and classical music gives Orchestra more appeal.

The Orchestra began its 1970 activities with a picnic at Oak Openings Park. Gathering money took one Saturday morning for the members of the Orchestra as they participated in the annual tag day. They asked for donations from the Bowsher area homes to support the whole music department. The money collected helped buy uniforms and equipment for the whole music department.

The joy and seriousness of Christmas were presented musically by the Orchestra in their annual Christmas concert. A medley of familiar Christmas songs highlighted the concert including "Jingle Bells" and "Silent Night."

Early during the year the Orchestra participated in the State Orchestra Contest where orchestras from various parts of Ohio met.

Completing the year the Orchestra performed at the Baccalaureate service, a program for graduating seniors. The music of the Orchestra helped set the mood for this service.

Managing the affairs, skills, and precision of the Choir and the Madrigals, is Mrs. Marcella Lillevig.

Bowsher's 1969-1970 Choir provided schools and community alike with an enjoyable selection of music. They participated in an exchange concert with Devilbiss High School and the "American Youth Performs" concert at Bowsher.

Sixteen junior and senior girls and guys composed a new part of the Choir this year called "The Madrigals." The girls wore long blue formals with long white gloves while the guys dressed up in tuxedoes. This group competed in contests and sang for clubs in the neighborhood.

The Choir's singing in the annual Christmas concert performed with the orchestra, created an enthusiastic Christmas spirit. To promote seasonal spirit, both the Choir and "The Madrigals" gave special concerts at the Woodville Mall.

In the spring, the Choir lightened the season with their concert for school. Spring also brought the district contest at the University of Toledo and the State competition.

Seniors received a special concert when the Choir performed at Baccalaureate as they did last year. Mrs. Marcella Lillevig guided an inspirational and thrilling year for the Choir.

For the first time since 1966 the membership roster of the Chess Club included girls names. The girls, along with several other new members, soon became aware of the club's enthusiasm for the game of chess. Bowsher's chess teams, instructed by the club's advisor, Mr. John Erkert, are a part of the Morphy Division of the Toledo Area High School Chess League. Each Wednesday, two four-man teams exercise their skills against the opposition from one of the other schools in the division. There were two rounds of competition held during the year; the first lasting from December to February and the second from February through March. During the first round both Rebel teams won their matches with Anthony Wayne and Libbey and the first team won against Ottawa Hills. In addition to tournament play, chess games between members of the club were often in progress throughout the year.

School Service Girls Assist the Administration

Being helpful to teachers and counselors, in many different ways, are the tasks of the girls in school service. Duties extend from buying a teachers' lunch to collecting attendance cards for counselors. Many of the girls' jobs are difficult, but essential to the operation of Bowsher. Each of these girls gave up a study hall to work either in an attendance, athletic, music, stationer's desk, or main office. Other places which offer a girl work in school service is the library or the nurse's office.

Marlene Zolciak and Jane Floering collect and sort attendance cards for counselors and clerks.

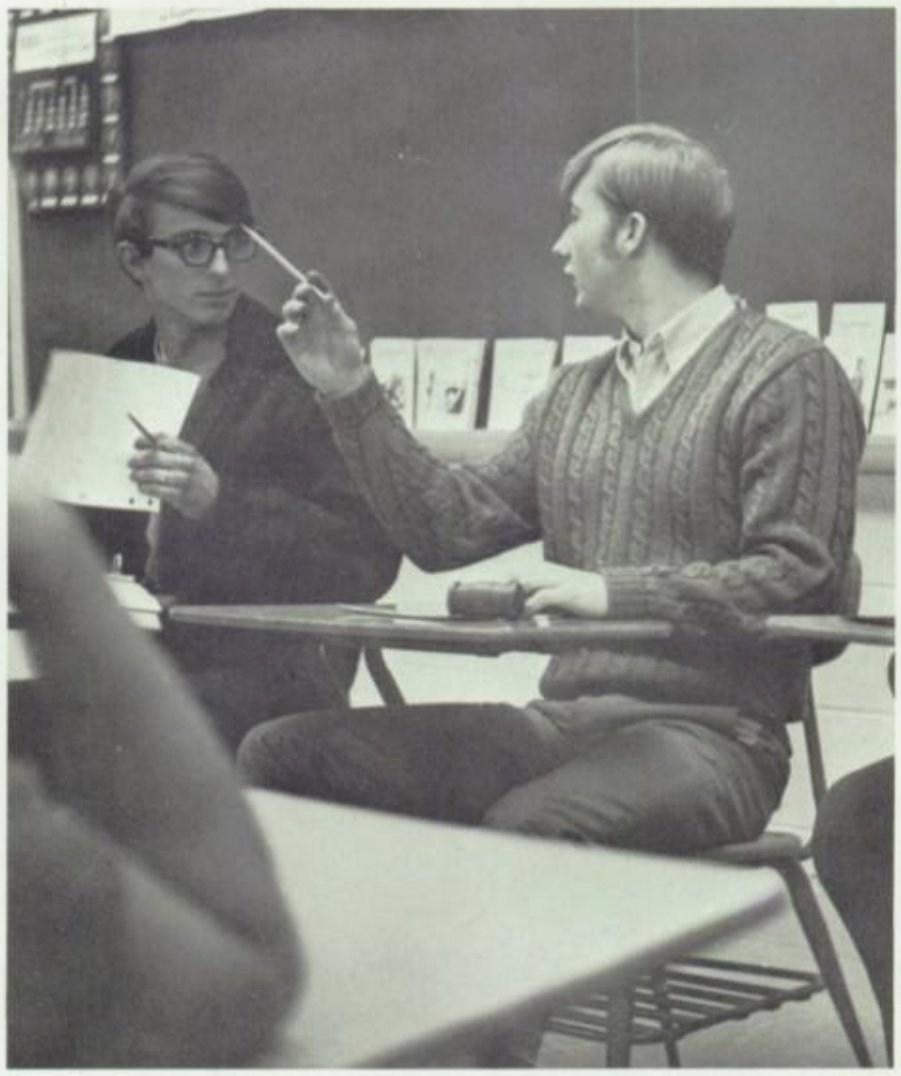
D.E.C.A. Members Combine Education With Vocation

Decorating Mr. Bourdo's room for Christmas demonstrated that D.E.C.A. members have fun with their education.

With the recent emphasis on vocational training, Bowsher can claim two working vocation projects. Distributive Education Clubs of America is represented at Bowsher and provides work experience along with academic pursuits for interested students. In this program, students attend regular classes in the morning and are employed by area business men in the afternoon. Other such jobs besides retailing include gas station attendants, and grocery clerks. Activities occupied the time of this year's D.E.C.A. students. A city wide picnic was held September 14 and the District Election of Officers was held October 21.

Students Combine Academics and Work Experience

Occupational Work Experience is an important part of the Bowsher vocational program. Participants in this special school program attend classes in the morning taught by advisor Mr. Charles Darnell. In the afternoon the members of O.W.E. work at jobs offered by interested businessmen. In one respect then, O.W.E. is a class, a curriculum subject, but it also resembles a club, as it has officers and activities. Some of the plans for this year included a field trip to the L.O.F. factory in November, another field trip took them to the Sun Oil Company, to observe how facilities are run in different factories. A swim party and bowling party were also on the schedule for this year and provided knowledge and fun for the members of O.W.E.



President Bill Sayre discusses a point with Secretary Tim Tiderman at a weekly meeting of O.W.E. club.

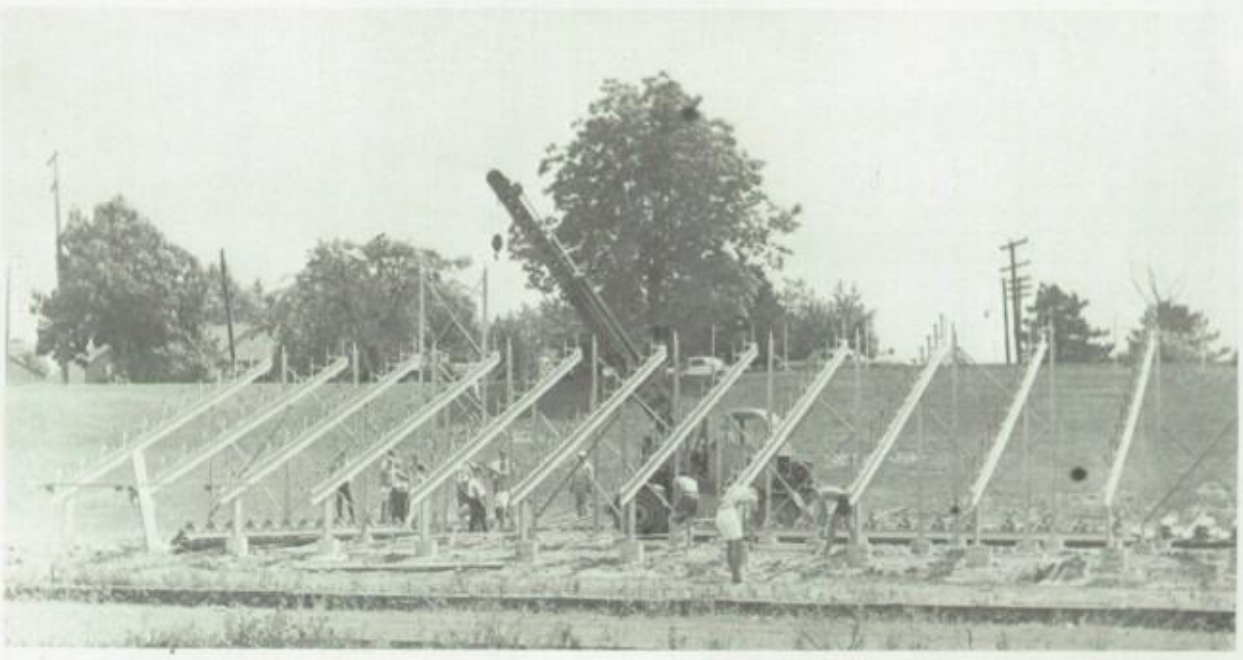
Bowsher Stadium



Six United States Marines assist in the dedication of the flagpole to Bill Wirick.

Halfback Dave Najarian scores the first touchdown in the stadium against Scott.

This year the Rebel football players really had a home; they played the first game of the city league in the new "Bowsher Bowl." The plan to complete the Bowl was introduced last spring by Mr. Jim Schaetzke, president of the Bowsher Boosters. A fund raising program was started by the Boosters which gave the community the needed spark to carry out the program. Students also inspired by the thought of having a football stadium broke all school records in the Candy Sale Drive. At the first game in the Bowl, the American Legion Dean Horton Post #108 presented the school with a flag. On October 24th against Devilbiss, the flag pole was formally dedicated by six members of Staff Company "B," First Battalion, 24th Marines. It was dedicated to Bill Wirick, student council president and All-City football player who was killed in Viet Nam.

The Bowsher Boosters were honored at the last home game for their diligent work on the stadium.

The Rebel '69 football team, Coached by George Machoukas, was the most outstanding in Bowsher's history. After losing their opener to Ohio's second ranked team, Elyria, the Rebels won eight straight games taking the Red Division title, which gave them their berth in the traditional Thanksgiving day "Shoe Bowl" Game. The Rebels took a St. Francis fumble on the one yard-line and drove the ball 99 yards for a touchdown and a victory in the closing minutes of the game. The Rebels also captured another title as they were named the number one team in Northwestern Ohio, and were awarded a trophy by the Blade.

In addition to team distinctions, many individuals received honors this season. Named to the Red Division first team were Seniors George Keim, Bill Ernst, Dan Napoleski, and Dave Schaetzke; Juniors, Rob Branyan and Dave Kaighin on second team. A Metropolitan team was also picked this year, which included Bowsher's Bill Ernst and Dave Schaetzke with George Keim and Dave Kaighin receiving second team honors. Northwestern Ohio All-Stars first team included two Bowsher players Ernst and Schaetzke. Keim, Branyan, and Kaighin received Honorable mention.

For the first time in the school's football career a Rebel gridder was named All-State. Dave Schaetzke who received title as, the Times City League Player of the Year and the championship games' Most Outstanding Player was elected to the Associated Press' Class AA first team All-Ohio Team. Bill Ernst received honorable mention All-Ohio to add to his many honors.

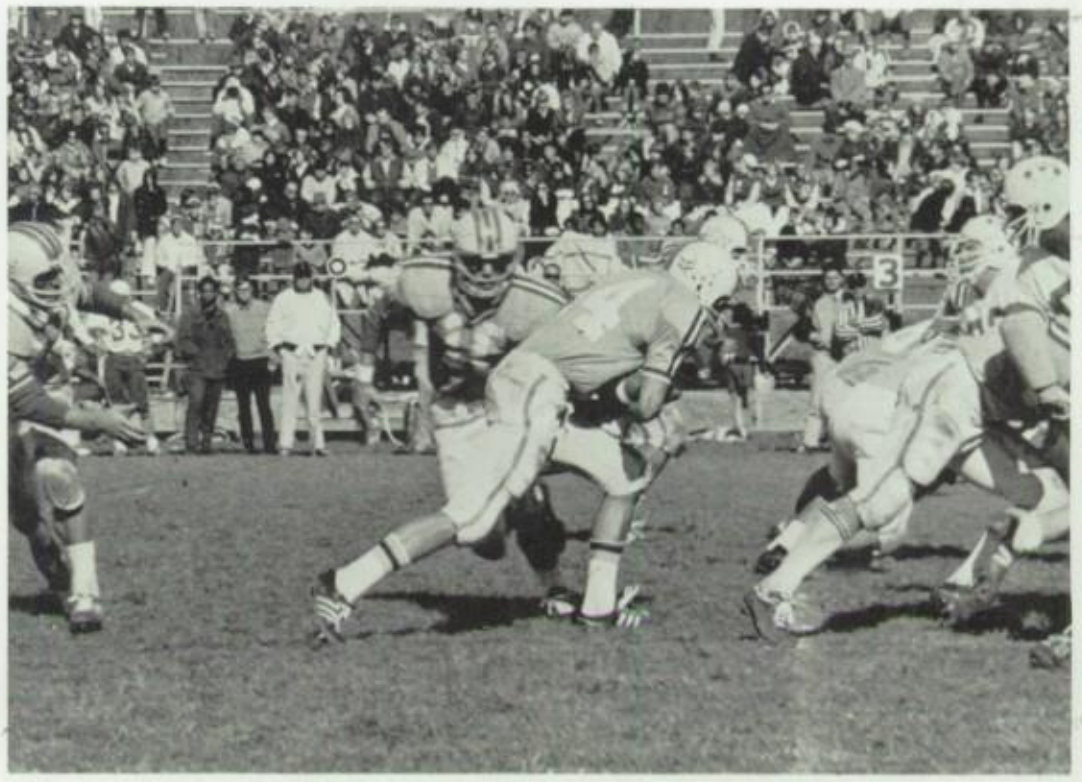
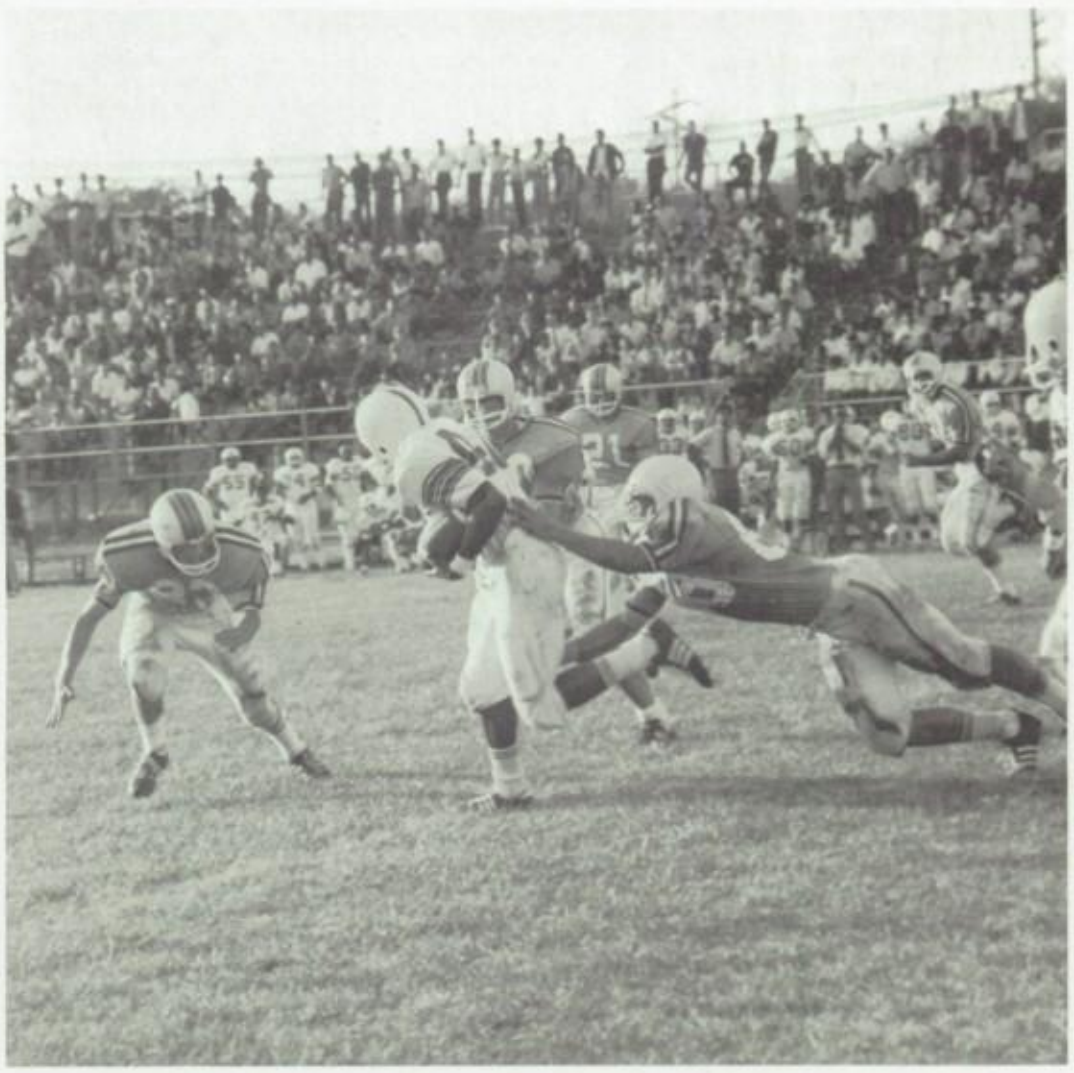
September 12 was the Rebels first game in the new Bowsher Stadium. They celebrated with a victory against Scott, before 5,000 spectators. This was the beginning of the schools best season. The Rebel gridders went nine in a row after losing to Elyria. To revenge previous losses to Fremont the Rebels scored 21 points to the Little Giants 6. The second league victory came against Macomber. The Dunsmore Drum given each year to the victors of the Bowsher-Start game, this year remained at Bowsher. On October 12 the Rebels went on to prove to be number one by defeating Central on a wet soggy field, 19-14. The drive of the offense and powerful defense further proved the Rebels were the best by shutting out their next two teams, Rogers and DeVilbiss. Lima Shawnee felt the Rebel power as they were defeated 38-8. The team then prepared three weeks for the Championship game. Thanksgiving morning the Rebels became the new City Champions.





Bowsher's Junior Varsity and Freshman football teams finished with identical 2-4-1 records. Guided by first year coach Tom Rousch, the J.V. gridders gained the experience needed for varsity play. The Rebels displayed their best efforts in downing DeVilbiss 26-0, and Start 8-0. In both games the Rebel defense dominated play holding their opponents scoreless. Coach John Johnson led the Frosh to two impressive victories over Macomber and Start, and taught the young Rebels the skills needed to play high school football.

Victory Over the Knights Highlights Rebel Season

This year Senior Co-Captains Greg Zientara and John Pilewski guided the Rebel Roundballers. Though the season was not impressive (a 5-13) record, the Rebels for the first time in the school's history defeated the Knights of St. Francis. In a close game Rebel desire was proven as Bowsher came out victorious 57-56. Senior Mike Sobecki sparked the team with the most total points with 302, which was a 16.8 average per game. Sobecki also led in the number of rebounds. John Pilewski led in the free throw percentage. Rick Markwood, a junior, led with the best field goal average. With well over half the team returning, prospects for next season seem hopeful.

Individual Efforts Stand Out

Bowsher 1969-70 wrestling team paced by underclassmen Juniors Gary Langel, Eric Risner and Norm Mielke, led the team to a 4-4-1 record. The Rebels finished seventh in the City League tournament and 4th in the Bowling Green Invitational. Individually, the grapplers had excellent success in tournaments.

Co-captain Gary Langel won All-City honors in the 185 lb. class, second place in the Start Tournament and finished the season with a 16-2 record. Junior co-captain Eric Risner who captured third team All-City honors, took first place in the Bowling Green Tournament and had a fine 14-3-1 personal record. Two other standouts were Norm Mielke, fifth in the city tourney, and 155 lb. champion at Bowling Green and senior Ray Butler, who finished fifth in the City Championship and third in the Start Tournament.

Underclassmen also had good seasons. The J.V. team had a 3-3-1 record. Their best match was against Rogers when they defeated the Rams 40-16. The Freshmen had the only winning season for the Grapplers this year with a 4-2 win-loss record.

Inexperience proved to be the most important factor, in the "69" netter's season. Under the leadership of first year coach William Meek, a young untried team composed of one senior, two juniors, three sophomores, and one freshman finished with a 5 and 6 record. In the city championship match at Jermain Park, the Rebels placed seventh with 14 points. Junior Tom Davies went through the entire season undefeated in league play. And 1969 became 1970.

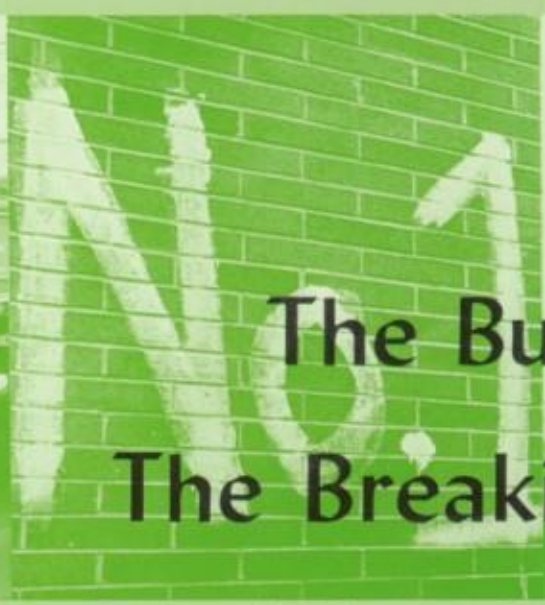
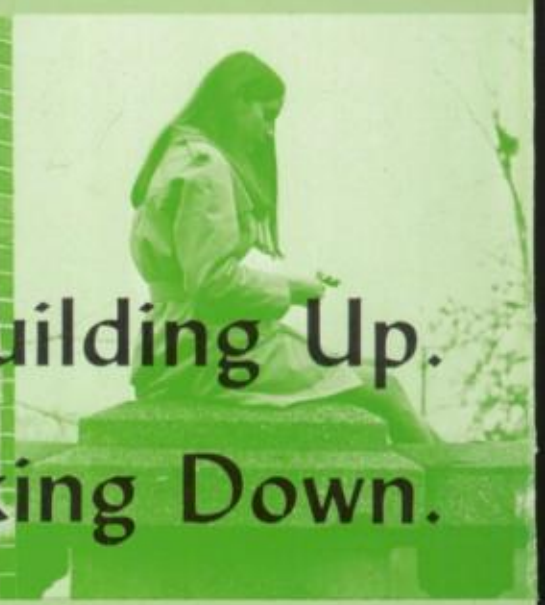
And with the turning of a year,

Came the turning within the year.





The Building Up.

The Breaking Down.

The Celebrating.

And Mourning.

The Loving.

The Hating.

And all the Laughing.

And Weeping.

Just Being.

But after a year of turning,

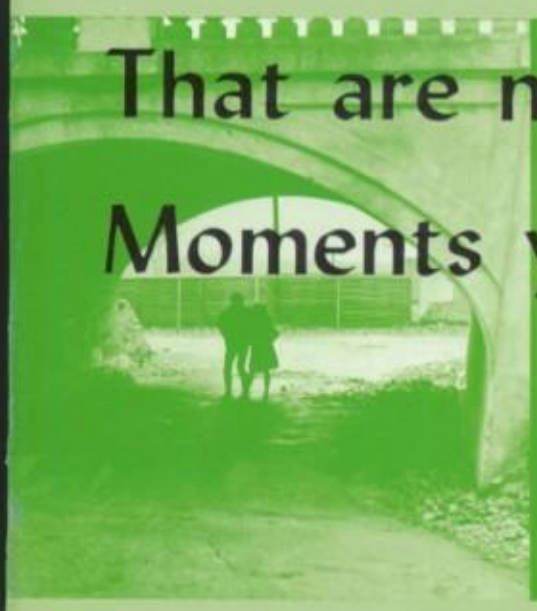
The time to turn to yourself.

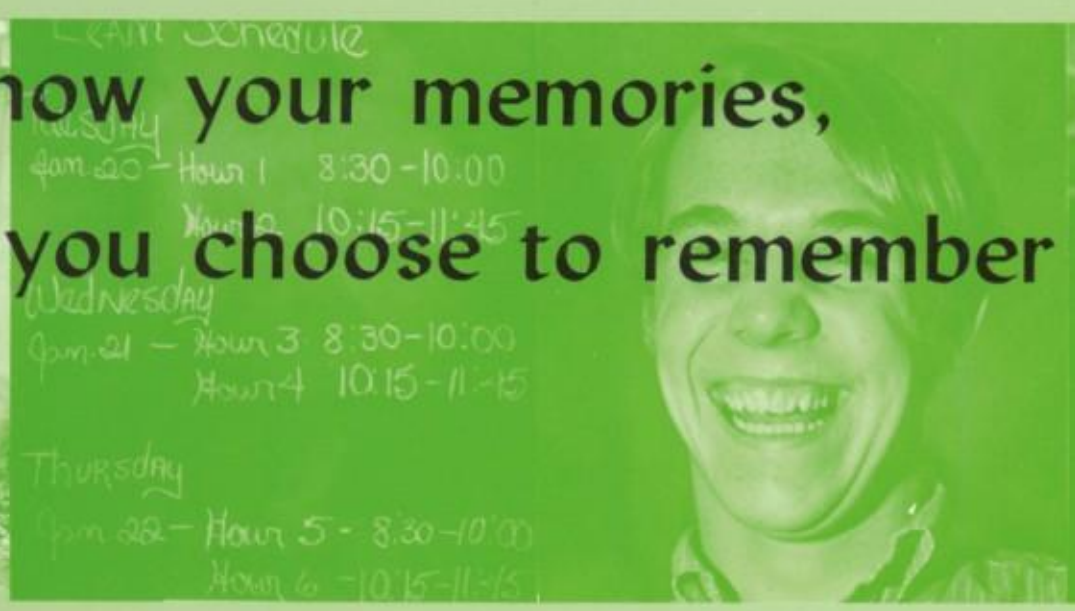
Slightly hesitating —

To reflect the times

That are now your memories,

Moments you choose to remember —





But never really stopping.

Forever turning . . .

The turning . . . the experiencing, the fulfilling, the laughing, the reflecting, and the waiting for the 1970 Apogee is now complete. Along with this completion, we turn toward a beginning with its fresh ideals, frustrating defeats, exuberant triumphs, and pointed memories. Before this beginning, however, I must pause to thank those who helped to make this yearbook a reality. These include: Taylor Publishing Company; the unique photography of Powell and National School Studios; the advice of Mr. Jerry Barber; the financial assistance of Mrs. Gladys Just; Mr. George Miley, activities director; and Mr. Ray McNeill, our principal. A special thank you goes to those who supported our patron drive. In addition, success comes from the ingenuity of the members of the staff; Dan Walch, our photographer; Carol Abodeely, in the darkroom; and Miss Cheryl Jacobs, our advisor. Sincere appreciation is warmly extended to these people.
